Reason for applying

② Relevant documents or information
 In the case of a private individual, where the address is being used without their authority, this may include:

- documents showing the applicant's proprietary rights in the address, including leasehold or freehold
- a written agreement entitling the applicant to use the address
- a utility bill sent to the applicant at the address dated within the last 6 months

The above examples may also apply to a service provider where their address is being used without their authority.

In the case of a service provider, where a contract has been entered into and subsequently terminated, this may include:

- written evidence of the start and termination of the contract, including the applicant's initial request for the service or a receipted invoice showing proof of payment or any other evidence of the company's direct involvement in the process, and a copy of the letter terminating the contract, or
- a copy of the signed contract and the termination letter.

We will consider any other evidence on a case by case basis.
