Notes

1. Following the appointment of the new Prime Minister and Ministers in July 2016, there has been a cash terms reduction in annual paybill estimated to be £109,872 (-2.3%) compared to the previous year.

2. In May 2010 overall remuneration of Ministers (Ministerial and Parliamentary salaries) was cut by 5% compared to the previous Government and then frozen for the duration of the 2010-2015 Parliament.

- 3. The Government has committed to freeze Ministerial salaries for the length of the 2015-20 Parliament as well, meaning a further reduction in real terms. Ministers waive part of their salary to enable this freeze.
- 4. Claimed salaries are the amounts Ministers are paid. Entitled salaries are the amounts Ministers are eligible to in legislation.
- 5. Commons Ministers receive a MP salary in addition to their Ministerial salary. Lords Ministers only receive a Ministerial salary and are not entitled to claim Lords Attendance Allowance.
