The applicable fee

For applications made on this form as a Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) Migrant there is a fee of £230 for standard postal applications.

Applications can be made in person at a Premium Service Centre for a same day consideration of your application. There is an additional fee for this service and all fees will be taken when you book an appointment. You can only make on-line or in person payments by using one of our accepted credit or debit cards (see below). For more details and to book an appointment please visit www.gov.uk/ukvi-premium-service-centres

By completing this form you are also applying for a Biometric Immigration Document.

Biometric enrolment fee

As part of your application, you are required to enrol your biometric information. You will be charged an additional handling fee for this service payable to the Post Office Ltd. You must pay the fee by cash or debit card when you attend Post Office Ltd. to enrol your biometrics. Each dependant included on your application must also pay this additional fee when they enrol their biometric information. Do not send the biometric enrolment fee with your application fee.

If you were exempt from paying an application fee, you are also eligible to claim a refund of your biometric enrolment fee after you have registered your biometrics.

Your application may be rejected as invalid if you do not enrol your biometrics when requested. For more information about enrolling biometrics and the current fee, please visit the following section of our website.

www.gov.uk/biometric-residence-permits

Nationals of countries that have ratified the 1961 Council of Europe Social Charter (CESC) pay a reduced fee of £175 for standard postal applications. This reduction is currently applicable to main applicant nationals of the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia and Turkey only.

There are no other fee reductions or exemptions to the fees set out above.

Dependants

Each dependant must complete a separate Tier 1, 2 or 5 PBS Dependant form. The fee for a Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) dependant is £230 (standard postal).

How you can pay

This would include offences such as murder, torture, rape, severe deprivation of liberty in violation of fundamental rules of international law and enforced disappearance of persons.

Genocide

Acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group.

E1. What is your current immigration status?

Please select your current immigration status. Your immigration status is the type of leave you currently hold.

Leave to enter' means that you currently have permission to be in the UK based on leave/ entry clearance (visa) that was issued to you before you entered and/or when you entered the UK.

'Leave to remain' means that you were already in the UK when we issued your current permission to stay, and we issued it within the UK.

A 'limited period' means that your leave/entry clearance/visa has an expiry date, and we have not given you unlimited, otherwise known as 'indefinite', permission to stay.

Applications for leave to remain will fall for refusal if you have overstayed beyond the end of the last period of leave to enter or remain you were granted. The only exceptions are where your application is made:

- within 14 days of your previous leave expiring and we consider there is a good reason beyond your / your representative's control, provided in or with the application, why the application could not be made in time; or
- following the refusal of a previous application for leave which was made intime or to which the exception outlined above applied, and within 14 days of:

E2. What is your current grant of leave?

This is the immigration category in which you were last given leave to enter or remain. Please select your current or most recent category. If you don't have current leave, select the category in which you most recently had leave to enter or remain.

If you do not have leave as a Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) Migrant, you can switch into that category if you have, or were last given, leave in one of the following categories as a:

 Sports Visitor - you can apply to switch into the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) Creative and Sporting sub-category if you were assigned a valid Certificate of Sponsorship before you came to the UK.

    - you can apply to switch into the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) Government Authorised Exchange, sub-category provided you were previously issued with a work permit for the purpose of employment as a sponsored researcher, and you have been granted a Certificate of Sponsorship to continue this employment.

 will not be filling a permanent vacancy such their employer does not intend to employ them in the UK at the end of the period of work experience or training.

If you are not in one of these categories, you cannot switch into the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) Migrant category whilst you are in the UK and it is likely we will refuse your application.

You can apply to extend your stay for the maximum period allowed in your specific subcategory if you are already in the UK and were last given leave to enter or remain as a:

E3. Were you required to register with the police as a condition of your current or last grant of leave in the UK?

Certain nationalities are required to register with the police as a condition of their leave.

If this condition applied to you, you will have been instructed to register with your local police department when you were granted your last period of leave in the UK. The requirement to register with the police also features on your visa or your BRP, if you are required to have one.

You must submit your Police Registration Certificate as part of your application. For detailed guidance about Police Registration Certificates, visit the Gov.uk website at: www.gov.uk/government/publications/police-registration

E8. Are you currently waiting for a decision on any other application made to the Home Office?

If you have made an application to the Home Office which has not yet been decided and your leave has expired, this application will be treated as a variation of that application. If that application has already been decided and it has been refused, you cannot make a new application until any appeal you may have against that refusal is finally determined or the time limit for appealing has expired.

E10. Are you currently waiting for a decision on an immigration appeal to the Asylum and Immigration Chamber (AIC)?

If you have an appeal outstanding, you cannot make a new application until that appeal is finally determined. Any further representations should be sent to the AIC to link to the appeal papers. Alternatively, you can withdraw the appeal and make a new application.

This may apply to you if your last application for leave in the UK was refused and you were given a right of appeal against that decision and you have lodged an appeal with the AIC.

Under Section 3C of the Immigration Act 1971, a person may not make an application for a variation of their leave to enter or remain in the UK while their leave is extended by that section other than seeking to vary the original application while it remains undecided.

This includes any period when the application for variation is neither withdrawn nor decided or the period when an appeal under Section 82(1) of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum could be brought or remains pending. If you have an appeal outstanding or you are still in the limited period when you could lodge an appeal, then you should not make a fresh application.

The period during which you are able to lodge an appeal after an application has been refused is usually five or ten working days from the date that the refusal decision was served or sent to you. If you are unsure about this, then you should carefully read the letters and forms sent to you with the refusal decision.

F1. Have you been convicted of any criminal offence in the UK or any other country?

We routinely conduct eligibility and background checks. You should ensure that you fully disclose all information which could be relevant to your application and be aware that the failure to do so could result in your application being refused.

We will carry out criminal record checks on all applicants and dependants. You must declare all convictions, regardless of whether they are spent or unspent.

F2. Please give details below for each criminal conviction, starting with the most recent. If you have received more than two convictions, please photocopy this page and enclose it with this form.

F3. Do you have any civil judgments against you or any civil penalty under the UK Immigration Acts?

A Civil Judgement is where a court has ordered you to pay money to another person/party usually because of damages or monetary loss incurred by that person/party. A Civil Penalty under a UK Immigration Act would be a financial penalty imposed on you, for example, as a result of the failure to check an employees immigration status.
