Risk Assessment and Controls

Risk assessment by the Treasury and Home Office

16.—(1) The Treasury and the Home Office must make arrangements before 26th June 2018 for a risk assessment to be undertaken to identify, assess, understand and mitigate the risks of money laundering and terrorist financing affecting the United Kingdom (“the risk assessment”).

(2) The risk assessment must, among other things—

(a) identify any areas where relevant persons should apply enhanced due diligence measures, and where appropriate, specify the measures to be taken;

(b) identify, where appropriate, the sectors or areas of lower and greater risk of money laundering and terrorist financing;

(c) consider whether any rules on money laundering and terrorist financing made by a supervisory authority applying in relation to the sector it supervises are appropriate in the light of the risks of money laundering and terrorist financing applying to that sector;

(d) provide the information and analysis necessary to enable it to be used for the purposes set out in paragraph (3).

(3) The Treasury and the Home Office must ensure that the risk assessment is used to—

(a) consider the appropriate allocation and prioritisation of resources to counter money laundering and terrorist financing;

(b) consider whether the exemptions provided for in regulation 15 are being abused;

(c) consider whether providers of gambling services other than casinos should continue to be excluded from the requirements of these Regulations.

(4) For the purpose of paragraph (3)(c), a “provider of gambling services” means a person who by way of business provides facilities for gambling within the meaning of section 5 of the Gambling Act 2005(a).

(5) In undertaking the risk assessment, the Treasury and the Home Office must take account of the reports made by the Commission under Article 6.1 of the fourth money laundering directive.

(6) The Treasury and the Home Office must prepare a joint report setting out, as appropriate, the findings of the risk assessment as soon as reasonably practicable after the risk assessment is completed.

(7) A copy of that report must be laid before Parliament, and sent to—

(a) the PRA;

(b) the supervisory authorities;

(c) the European Commission;

(d) the European Supervisory Authorities; and

(e) each of the other EEA states.

(8) If information from the risk assessment would assist supervisory authorities in carrying out their own money laundering and terrorist financing risk assessment, the Treasury and the Home Office must, where appropriate, make that information available to those supervisory authorities,

(a) 2005 c.19.
unless to do so would not be compatible with restrictions on sharing information imposed in or under the Data Protection Act 1998(a) or any other enactment.

(9) The Treasury and the Home Office must take appropriate steps to ensure that the risk assessment is kept up-to-date.

Risk assessment by supervisory authorities

17.—(1) Each supervisory authority must identify and assess the international and domestic risks of money laundering and terrorist financing to which those relevant persons for which it is the supervisory authority ("its own sector") are subject.

(2) In carrying out the risk assessment required under paragraph (1), the supervisory authority must take into account—

(a) reports published by the Commission under Article 6.1 of the fourth money laundering directive;
(b) guidelines issued by the European Supervisory Authorities under Articles 17, 18.4 and 48.10 of the fourth money laundering directive;
(c) the report prepared by the Treasury and the Home Office under regulation 16(6); and
(d) information made available by the Treasury and the Home Office under regulation 16(8).

(3) A supervisory authority must keep an up-to-date written record of all steps it has taken under paragraph (1).

(4) Each supervisory authority must develop and record in writing risk profiles for each relevant person in its own sector.

(5) A supervisory authority may prepare a single risk profile under paragraph (4) in relation to two or more relevant persons in its sector, if—

(a) the relevant persons share similar characteristics, and
(b) the risks of money laundering and terrorist financing affecting those relevant persons do not differ significantly.

(6) Where a supervisory authority has prepared a single risk profile for two or more relevant persons in its sector (a "cluster"), the supervisory authority must keep under review whether an individual risk profile should be prepared in relation to any relevant person in the cluster because sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph (5) are no longer satisfied in relation to that person.

(7) In developing the risk profiles referred to in paragraph (3), the supervisory authority must take full account of the risks that relevant persons in its own sector will not take appropriate action to identify, understand and mitigate money laundering and terrorist financing risks.

(8) Each supervisory authority must review the risk profiles developed under paragraph (4) at regular intervals and following any significant event or developments which might affect the risks to which its own sector is subject, such as—

(a) significant external events that change the nature of the money laundering and terrorist financing risks;
(b) emerging money laundering and terrorist financing risks;
(c) any findings resulting from measures taken by other supervisory authorities;
(d) any changes in the way in which its own sector is operated;
(e) significant changes in regulation.

(9) If information from the risk assessment carried out under paragraph (1), or from information provided to the supervisory authority under regulation 16(8), would assist relevant persons in carrying out their own money laundering and terrorist financing risk assessment, the supervisory authority must, where appropriate, make that information available to those persons, unless to do

(a) 1998 c.29.
so would not be compatible with restrictions on sharing information imposed in or under the Data Protection Act 1998(a) or any other enactment.

(i) its customers;
(ii) the countries or geographic areas in which it operates;
(iii) its products or services;
(iv) its transactions; and
(v) its delivery channels.

(3) In deciding what steps are appropriate under paragraph (1), the relevant person must take into account the size and nature of its business.

(4) A relevant person must keep an up-to-date written record of all steps it has taken under paragraph (1), unless its supervisory authority notifies it that such a record is not required.

(5) A supervisory authority may not give the notification referred to in paragraph (4) unless it considers that the risks of money laundering and terrorist financing applicable to the sector in which the relevant person operates are clear and understood.

(6) A relevant person must provide the risk assessment it has prepared under paragraph (1), the information on which that risk assessment was based and any record required to be kept under paragraph (4) to its supervisory authority on request.

(a) inform its supervisory authority accordingly; and

(b) take additional measures to handle the risk of money laundering and terrorist financing effectively.

(5) A relevant parent undertaking must ensure that information relevant to the prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing is shared as appropriate between members of its group, where this is compatible with restrictions on sharing information imposed in or under any enactment.

(b) a family member or a known close associate of a PEP, and to manage the enhanced risks arising from the relevant person’s relationship with such a customer.

(a) PEPs, or
(b) family members or known close associates of PEPs.

(7) The measures required under paragraph (6) must be taken before—

(b) ceased to be entrusted with a prominent public function before these Regulations came into force.

(11) When a person who was a PEP is no longer entrusted with a prominent public function, the relevant person is no longer required to apply the requirements in paragraphs (5) and (8) in relation to a family member or known close associate of that person (whether or not the period referred to in paragraph (9) has expired).

(12) In this regulation—
(a) “appropriate body” means any body which regulates or is representative of any trade, profession, business or employment carried on by the relevant person.

CHAPTER 3
Simplified due diligence

Application of simplified due diligence

36.—(1) A relevant person may apply simplified customer due diligence measures in relation to a particular business relationship or transaction if it determines that the business relationship or transaction presents a low degree of risk of money laundering or terrorist financing, having taken into account—

(a) the risk assessment it carried out under regulation 18(1);
(b) relevant information provided to it in accordance with regulations 17(9) and 46; and
(c) the risk factors referred to in paragraph (3).

(2) Where a relevant person is applying simplified customer due diligence measures, it must—

(a) continue to comply with the requirements in regulation 28, but it may adjust the extent of the measures it undertakes under that regulation to reflect its determination under paragraph (1);
(b) carry out sufficient monitoring of any transactions or business relationships which are subject to those measures to enable it to detect any unusual or suspicious transactions.

(3) When assessing whether there is a low degree of risk of money laundering and terrorist financing in a particular situation, and the extent to which it is appropriate to apply simplified customer due diligence measures in that situation, the relevant person must take account of at least the following risk factors—

(a) customer risk factors, including whether the customer—
(i) is a public administration, or a publically owned enterprise;
(ii) is an individual resident in a geographical area of lower risk (see sub-paragraph (c));
(iii) is a credit institution or a financial institution which is subject to the requirements in the fourth money laundering directive;
(iv) is a company whose securities are listed on a regulated market, and the location of the regulated market;
(b) product, service, transaction or delivery channel risk factors, including whether the product or service is—
(i) a life insurance policy for which the premium is low;
(ii) an insurance policy for a pension scheme which does not provide for an early surrender option, and cannot be used as collateral;
(iii) a pension, superannuation or similar scheme which satisfies the following conditions—
(aa) the scheme provides retirement benefits to employees;
(bb) contributions to the scheme are made by way of deductions from wages, and
(cc) the scheme rules do not permit the assignment of a member’s interest under the scheme;
(iv) a financial product or service that provides appropriately defined and limited services to certain types of customers to increase access for financial inclusion purposes;
(v) a product where the risks of money laundering and terrorist financing are managed by other factors such as purse limits or transparency of ownership;
(vi) a product storing electronic money used exclusively to carry out humanitarian and charitable activities or as a vehicle for benefit payments;
(vii) a child trust fund within the meaning given by section 1(2) of the Child Trust Funds Act 2004(a);

(viii) a junior ISA within the meaning given by regulation 2B of the Individual Savings Account Regulations 1998(b);

(c) geographical risk factors, including whether the country where the customer is resident, established or registered or in which it operates is—

(i) an EEA state;

(ii) a third country which has effective systems to counter money laundering and terrorist financing;

(iii) a third country identified by credible sources as having a low level of corruption or other criminal activity, such as terrorism (within the meaning of section 1 of the Terrorism Act 2000(c)), money laundering, and the production and supply of illicit drugs;

(iv) a third country which, on the basis of credible sources, such as evaluations, detailed assessment reports or published follow-up reports published by the Financial Action Task Force, the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank, the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development or other international bodies or non-governmental organisations, has requirements to counter money laundering and terrorist financing that are consistent with the revised Recommendations published by the Financial Action Task Force in February 2012 and updated in October 2016 and effectively implements those recommendations.

(4) A relevant person may apply simplified customer due diligence measures where the customer is an independent legal professional established in an EEA state and the product is an account into which monies are pooled (the “pooled account”), provided that—

(a) the business relationship with the holder of the pooled account presents a low degree of risk of money laundering or terrorist financing, and

(b) information on the identity of the persons on whose behalf monies are held in the pooled account is available, on request (and at the latest within two working days of the day on which the request was made) to the institution where the pooled account is held.

(5) In determining what customer due diligence measures to take, and the extent of those measures, when paragraph (1) applies, credit institutions and financial institutions must also take account of any guidelines issued by a European Supervisory Authority under Article 17 of the fourth money laundering directive.

(6) A relevant person must not continue to apply simplified customer due diligence measures under paragraph (1)—

(a) if it doubts the veracity or accuracy of any documents or information previously obtained for the purposes of identification or verification;

(b) if its risk assessment changes and it no longer considers that there is a low degree of risk of money laundering or terrorist financing; or

(c) if it suspects money laundering or terrorist financing.

Electronic money

37.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), a relevant person is not required to apply customer due diligence measures in relation to electronic money, and regulations 27, 28 and 30 do not apply provided that—

(a) the maximum amount which can be stored electronically is 250 euros, or (if the amount stored can only be used in the United Kingdom), 500 euros;

(a) 2004 c.6.
(b) S.I. 1998/1870. Regulation 2B was inserted by S.I. 2011/1780.
(c) 2000 c.11.

   (i) not reloadable, or
   (ii) is subject to a maximum limit on monthly payment transactions of 250 euros which can only be used in the United Kingdom;
(c) the relevant payment instrument is used exclusively to purchase goods or services;
(d) electronic money cannot be added to the relevant payment instrument unless the source of that money is known.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply to any transaction which consists of the redemption in cash, or a cash withdrawal, of the monetary value of the electronic money, where the amount redeemed exceeds 100 euros.

(3) The issuer of the relevant payment instrument must carry out sufficient monitoring of its business relationship with the users of electronic money and of transactions made using the relevant payment instrument to enable it to detect unusual or suspicious transactions.

(4) A relevant person is not prevented from applying simplified customer due diligence measures in relation to electronic money because the conditions set out in paragraph (1) are not satisfied, provided that such measures are permitted under regulation 36.

(5) For the purposes of this regulation “payment instrument” has the meaning given by regulation 2(1) of the Electronic Money Regulations 2011(a).

PART 4
Reliance and record keeping

Reliance

38.—(1) A relevant person may rely on a person who falls within paragraph (3) (“the third party”) to apply any of the customer due diligence measures required by regulation 28(2) to (6) and (10) but, notwithstanding the relevant person’s reliance on the other person, the relevant person remains liable for any failure to apply such measures.

(2) When a relevant person relies on the third party to apply customer due diligence measures under paragraph (1) it—

   (a) must obtain from the third party all the information needed to satisfy the requirements of regulation 28(2) to (6) and (10);
   (b) must enter into written arrangements with the third party which—
      (i) enable the relevant person to obtain from the third party immediately on request (or at the latest within two working days) copies of any identification and verification data and any other relevant documentation on the identity of the customer or its beneficial owner;
      (ii) require the third party to retain copies of the data and documents referred to in paragraph (i) for the period referred to in regulation 39.

(3) The persons within this paragraph are—

   (a) another relevant person who is subject to these Regulations under regulation 8;
   (b) a person who carries on business in another EEA state who is—

   (ii) supervised for compliance with those requirements in a manner equivalent to section 2 of Chapter VI of the fourth money laundering directive;

(d) organisations whose members consist of persons within sub-paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

(4) A relevant person may not rely on a third party established in a country which has been identified by the European Commission as a high-risk third country under Article 9.2 of the fourth money laundering directive, and for these purposes “high-risk third country” has the meaning given in regulation 33(3).

(5) Paragraph (4) does not apply to a branch or majority owned subsidiary of a person established in an EEA state who is subject to the fourth money laundering directive if the branch or subsidiary complies fully with procedures and policies established for the group under Article 45 of the fourth money laundering directive.

(6) A relevant person is to be treated by a supervisory authority as having complied with the requirements of paragraphs (2) and (4) of this regulation if—
   (a) the relevant person is relying on information provided by a third party which is a member of the same group as the relevant person;
   (b) that group applies customer due diligence measures, rules on record keeping and programmes against money laundering and terrorist financing in accordance with these Regulations, the fourth money laundering directive or rules having equivalent effect; and
   (c) the effective implementation of the requirements referred to in sub-paragraph (b) is supervised at group level by an authority of an EEA state with responsibility for the implementation of the fourth money laundering directive or by an equivalent authority of a third country.

(7) Nothing in this regulation prevents a relevant person applying customer due diligence measures by means of an agent or an outsourcing service provider provided that the arrangements between the relevant person and the agent or outsourcing service provider provide for the relevant person to remain liable for any failure to apply such measures.

(8) For the purposes of paragraph (7), an “outsourcing service provider” means a person who—
   (a) performs a process, a service or an activity that would otherwise be undertaken by the relevant person, and
   (b) is not an employee of the relevant person.

Record-keeping

39.—(1) Subject to paragraph (4), a relevant person must keep the records specified in paragraph (2) for at least the period specified in paragraph (3).

   (b) sufficient supporting records (consisting of the original documents or copies) in respect of a transaction (whether or not the transaction is an occasional transaction) which is the subject of customer due diligence measures or ongoing monitoring to enable the transaction to be reconstructed.

(3) The period is five years beginning on the date on which the relevant person knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe—
(a) that the transaction is complete, for records, documents or information relating to an occasional transaction; or

(b) that the business relationship has come to an end for records, documents or information relating to—

(i) any transaction which occurs as part of a business relationship, or

(ii) customer due diligence measures taken in connection with that relationship.

(4) Once the period referred to in paragraph (3) has expired, the relevant person must delete any personal data unless—

(a) the relevant person is required to retain records containing personal data—

(i) by or under any enactment, or

(ii) for the purposes of any court proceedings, or

(b) the data subject has given express consent to the retention of that data.

(5) A relevant person who is relied on by another person must keep the records specified in paragraph (2)(a) for five years beginning on the date on which the relevant person is relied on for the purposes of regulations 28, 29, and 33 to 36 in relation to any business relationship or occasional transaction.

(6) A person referred to in regulation 38(3) (“A”) who is relied on by a relevant person (“B”) must, if requested by B within the period referred to in paragraph (3)—

(a) at the latest within two working days make available to B any information about the customer (and any beneficial owner) which A obtained when applying customer due diligence measures; and

(b) at the latest within two working days forward to B copies of any identification and verification data and other relevant documents on the identity of the customer (and any beneficial owner) which A obtained when applying those measures.

(7) Paragraph (6) does not apply where a relevant person applies customer due diligence measures by means of an agent or an outsourcing service provider (as defined in regulation 38(8)).

(8) For the purposes of this regulation—

(a) B relies on A where B does so in accordance with regulation 38(1);

(b) “copy” means a copy of the original document which would be admissible as evidence of the original document in court proceedings;

(c) “personal data” and “data subject” have the meanings given in section 1 of the Data Protection Act 1998(a).

40.—(1) Any personal data obtained by relevant persons or supervisory authorities or registering authorities to comply with the obligations in these Regulations may only be processed for the purposes of preventing money laundering and terrorist financing.

(2) Processing personal data for the purposes of preventing money laundering and terrorist financing is to be considered to be necessary for the exercise of—

(a) a function of a public nature in the public interest for the purposes of paragraph 5(d) of Schedule 2 to the Data Protection Act 1998(b); and

(b) a function conferred by or under an enactment for the purposes of paragraph 7(1)(b) of Schedule 3 to the Data Protection Act 1998(c).

c) Paragraph 7 of Schedule 5 to the Data Protection Act 1998 was amended by paragraph 5 of Schedule 6 to the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and S.I. 2003/1887.
(3) No other use may be made of personal data referred to in paragraph (1), unless—
   (a) use of the data is permitted by or under an enactment other than these Regulations; or
   (b) the relevant person has obtained the express consent of the data subject to the proposed use of the data.

(4) Relevant persons must provide new customers with the following information before establishing a business relationship or entering into an occasional transaction with the customer—
    (a) the registrable particulars of the relevant person, within the meaning of section 16 of the Data Protection Act 1998(a);
    (b) a statement that any personal data received from the customer will be processed only for the purposes of preventing money laundering and terrorist financing, or as permitted under paragraph (3).

(5) For the purposes of this regulation “personal data”, “processing” and “data subject” have the meanings given in section 1 of the Data Protection Act 1998.

(c) not a person mentioned in paragraphs (c) to (h) of the definition of a payment service provider in regulation 2(1) of the Payment Services Regulations 2009, or a person to whom regulation 3 or 121(c) of those Regulations applies.

(d) the right to make representations to it within the period specified in the notice (which must not be less than 28 days).

(8) The FCA must then decide, within a reasonable period, whether to suspend or cancel the person’s registration and it must give that person notice of—

(a) its decision not to suspend or cancel the person’s registration; or
(b) the following matters—
   (i) its decision to suspend or cancel the person’s registration and, subject to paragraph (9), the date from which the suspension or cancellation takes effect;
   (ii) the period of the suspension;
   (iii) the reasons for its decision; and
   (iv) the right to appeal under regulation 90.

(9) If the registering authority—

(a) considers that the interests of the public require the suspension or cancellation of a person’s registration to have immediate effect; and
(b) includes a statement to that effect and the reasons for it in the notice given under paragraph (6), the suspension or cancellation takes effect when the notice is given to the person.

(2) A designated supervisory authority may—

(a) impose a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate on P;
(b) publish a statement censuring P.

(3) A designated supervisory authority may impose a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate on an auction platform which contravenes—

(a) committed with the consent or connivance of an officer, or
(b) attributable to any neglect on the part of an officer, the supervisory authority may impose on that officer a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate.

(5) A designated supervisory authority must not impose a penalty on any person under this regulation for contravention of a relevant requirement if the authority is satisfied that the person took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to ensure that the requirement would be complied with.

(6) Where the FCA proposes to impose a penalty under this regulation on a PRA-authorised person or on a person who has a qualifying relationship with a PRA-authorised person, it must consult the PRA.

(7) In deciding whether a person has contravened a relevant requirement, the designated supervisory authority must consider whether at the time the person followed—

(b) “designated supervisory authority” means the FCA or the Commissioners.

Power to impose civil penalties: suspension and removal of authorisation

75.—(1) Paragraph (2) applies if the FCA is satisfied that a relevant person or a payment service provider has—
(a) repeatedly or systematically failed to include the information it is required to include on the payer or the payee under Articles 4, 5 or 6 of the funds transfer regulation;
(b) repeatedly or systematically failed to retain records in breach of Article 16 of the funds transfer regulation;

(b) S.I. 2009/209.
(c) S.I. 2011/99.
The period for which a suspension, limitation or other restriction is to have effect may not exceed 12 months.

A suspension may relate only to the carrying on of an activity in circumstances specified by the FCA when the suspension is imposed.

A restriction may, in particular, be imposed so as to require the person concerned to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

The FCA may—
(a) withdraw a suspension, limitation or other restriction; or
(b) vary a suspension or restriction so as to reduce the period for which it has effect or otherwise to limit its effect.

For the purposes of this regulation, “appropriate” means effective, proportionate and dissuasive.

(2) The designated supervisory authority may impose one of the following measures—
(a) a temporary prohibition on the individual holding an office or position involving responsibility for taking decisions about the management of a relevant person or a payment service provider (“having a management role”);
(b) a permanent prohibition on the individual having a management role.

(3) A prohibition may be expressed to expire at the end of such period as the designated supervisory authority may specify, but the imposition of a prohibition under paragraph (2)(a) that expires at the end of a specified period does not affect the designated supervisory authority’s power to impose a new prohibition under paragraph (2)(a).

(4) A prohibition imposed under paragraph (2) may be expressed to be a prohibition on an individual having a management role in—
(a) a named relevant person or payment service provider;
(b) a relevant person or payment service provider of a description specified by the FCA when the prohibition is imposed; or
(c) any relevant person or payment service provider.

(5) A relevant person or payment service provider must take reasonable care to ensure that no individual who is subject to a prohibition under paragraph (2) on having a management role with that relevant person or payment service provider is given such a role.

Injunctions

77.—(1) If, on the application of a designated supervisory authority, the court is satisfied—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations replace the Money Laundering Regulations 2007 (S.I. 2007/2157) and the Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2007 (S.I. 2007/3298) with updated provisions that implement in part the Fourth Money Laundering Directive 2015/849/EU (“fourth money laundering directive”) of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2015 on the prevention of the use of the financial system for the purpose of money laundering or terrorist financing (OJ L 141, 05.06.2015, p.73) and the Funds Transfer Regulation 2015/847/EU (“funds...

Part one (introduction) sets out the definitions and meanings that apply throughout these Regulations, and the supervisory authorities for those persons within the scope of these Regulations.

Part two (money laundering and terrorist financing) identifies the “relevant persons” to whom the money laundering provisions in these Regulations apply (regulations 8 to 15). Regulations 16 to 25 impose requirements for risk assessments to be carried out by the Treasury and the Home Office, the supervisory authorities and relevant persons to identify and assess the risks of money laundering and terrorist financing. They also require relevant persons to have policies, controls and procedures to mitigate and manage effectively the risks of money laundering and terrorist financing identified through the risk assessments. Regulation 26 prohibits any person from being the beneficial owner, officer or manager of certain firms unless that person has been approved by the firm’s supervisory authority.

Part three (customer due diligence) makes provision for customer due diligence measures. Regulations 27 to 32 identify what customer due diligence measures must be undertaken by relevant persons, and when those measures must be undertaken. Regulations 33 to 35 identify when enhanced customer due diligence measures must be applied by the relevant person in addition to the general customer due diligence measures required by regulations 27 to 32. Regulations 36 to 37 identify when simplified customer due diligence measures may be applied by the relevant person (regulation 36) and what customer due diligence measures are required in relation to electronic money (regulation 37). Simplified customer due diligence measures are customer due diligence measures that may be adjusted by the relevant person with sufficient monitoring in place to detect unusual or suspicious transactions.

Part four (reliance and record keeping) sets out the circumstances in which a relevant person may rely on another person to apply customer due diligence measures (regulation 38). It also makes provision as to which records relevant persons are required to keep, and when they are to be deleted (regulation 39), and clarifies the requirements as to data protection (regulation 40).

Part five (beneficial ownership information) applies to bodies corporate and to trustees. It requires corporate bodies to provide specified information to a relevant person when entering into a relevant transaction with a relevant person (regulation 42) and requires trustees to inform the relevant person of their status and to provide information to them, and to law enforcement authorities (regulation 43). The trustee is under additional requirements to hold certain information and provide information to the Commissioners for Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs (“the Commissioners”) in certain circumstances. The Commissioners are under a requirement to hold the information that has been received from the trustee in a register (regulation 44).

Part six (money laundering and terrorist financing: supervision and registration) makes provision in relation to supervisory authorities and registration of relevant persons. Regulations 45 to 51 provide for duties on supervisory authorities in relation to their own sector (regulations 45, 46 and 47). The self-regulatory organisations listed in Schedule 1 to the Regulations are subject to additional duties (regulation 48). All supervisory authorities are subject to a duty to cooperate with other supervisory authorities, the Treasury and law enforcement authorities (regulation 49), and a duty to collect information (regulation 50). Provision is made for the circumstances in which a supervisory authority may disclose information it holds for supervisory purposes (regulation 51). Regulations 52 to 59 require the Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”) and the Commissioners to maintain registers of certain relevant persons, and impose corresponding requirements on relevant persons to apply for registration. The FCA and the Commissioners have powers to suspend or cancel the registration of a relevant person in certain circumstances (regulation 59). If a relevant person in the relevant categories is not included in the register, that relevant person may not pursue their business (regulation 55).

Part seven (transfer of funds (information on the payer) regulations) sets out the supervisory authorities for a payment service provider and the duties of the supervisory authorities (regulations
There are only two supervisory authorities for service providers: the FCA and the Commissioners.

Part eight (information and investigation) gives supervisory authorities information gathering powers (regulations 64 to 67), gives the FCA and the Commissioners further investigatory powers (regulations 68 to 69) and makes provision for the way in which these powers may be exercised (regulations 70 to 72).

Part nine (enforcement) identifies “relevant requirements” for the purpose of these Regulations (regulation 73 and Schedule 6 to the Regulations) and gives the FCA and the Commissioners powers to impose civil penalties on any person who has contravened a relevant requirement (regulations 74 to 82). Regulations 83 to 89 provide for criminal offences where a relevant person has contravened a relevant requirement (regulation 83); prejudiced an investigation (regulation 84) or disclosed false or misleading information to the supervisory authorities (regulation 85), and make provision in relation to criminal proceedings (regulations 86 to 89).

Part ten (appeals) provides for an appeal from a decision by the FCA under these Regulations (regulation 90), and for reviews and appeals in relation to decisions of the Commissioners (regulations 91 to 97).

Part eleven (miscellaneous provisions) among other things ensures that charges or penalties imposed by the FCA or the Commissioners may be recovered as a debt in civil proceedings (regulation 98), ensures that the FCA and Commissioners are able to recover the costs of their supervision or enforcement action (regulation 99) and imposes obligations on various public authorities to disclose any suspicions they may have or money laundering or terrorist financing (regulation 100).
