Notes

1. In May 2010 overall remuneration of Ministers (Ministerial and Parliamentary salaries) was cut by 5% compared to the previous Government and then frozen for the duration of the 2010-2015 Parliament. Ministerial salaries (the part the Government controls) were frozen during the 2015-2017 Parliament.

2. The Government has committed to continue to freeze Ministerial salaries, meaning a further reduction in real terms. Ministers waive part of their salary to enable this freeze.

3. The Ministerial salary amounts stated in the table apply from 1st April 2017. There were no changes to Ministerial Salaries following the General Election.

4. Claimed salaries are the amounts Ministers are paid. Entitled salaries are the amounts Ministers are eligible to in legislation.

5. Commons Ministers receive a MP salary in addition to their Ministerial salary. Lords Ministers only receive a Ministerial salary. They are not entitled to claim Lords Attendance Allowance, unless they are an unpaid Minister.
