

Police Registration Certificate

1. The official title of this document is 'Certificate of Registration'. It is known as a police registration certificate to distinguish it from the certificate of registration as a British citizen.

2. It is issued by the Metropolitan Police Overseas Visitors Records Office (formerly the Aliens Registration Office) and provincial police stations to foreign nationals whose stay in this country is restricted and who are required, under s.3(1)(c) of the Immigration Act 1971, to register with the police.

Archived