Introduction

Highways England’s Health, Safety & Wellbeing Awards 2017 are designed to recognise, celebrate, and share achievements and excellence in health and safety performance across the industry.

They will be awarded annually to those individuals, teams, projects and companies who make a significant contribution to our first imperative – that no one should be harmed when travelling or working on the strategic road network. The awards are open to Highways England employees, our suppliers and their supply chain.

The awards aim to:

- Encourage individuals and teams to contribute towards continuous health and safety improvements.
- Share innovation and best practice across the industry.
- Recognise the Highways England values and behaviours expected to ensure safety is our first imperative.
- Identify exemplars in promoting a positive health and safety culture.
- Reinforce the commitment by Highways England and the supply chain to achieving zero harm.

Award categories

- Health & Safety Innovation
- Excellence in Road User Safety Achievement
- Project of the Year
- Graduate/Apprentice of the Year
- Health & Wellbeing Initiative of the Year
- Excellence in Health & Safety Performance
Judging

Entries will be judged by a panel of subject matter experts, including Highways England’s Chief Executive Officer, Jim O’Sullivan.

Where the category is open to both Highways England employees and our supply chain, a winner will be selected from each community.

The awards will be presented at a lunchtime ceremony on 7 March 2018. Those shortlisted for each category will be invited to attend the event, and will be advised mid-February 2018.
