

National Child Measurement Programme 2013/14

Summary of results for AnySchool Primary

Measurement percentage 2013/14

The level of participation in the NCMP was very good in your school.

Participation across England was 94%.

Prevalence results

Proportion of pupils measured (out of ten) that were overweight or obese. NCMP 2011/12, 2012/13 and 2013/14 combined

Your school
26.6%

AnyTown LA
22.1%

Prevalence of overweight and obesity is statistically similar in your school compared to the total for all schools in AnyTown LA.

Prevalence in England is 27.6%.

Proportion of pupils measured (out of ten) that were obese. NCMP 2011/12, 2012/13 and 2013/14 combined

Your school
14.3%

AnyTown LA
9.6%

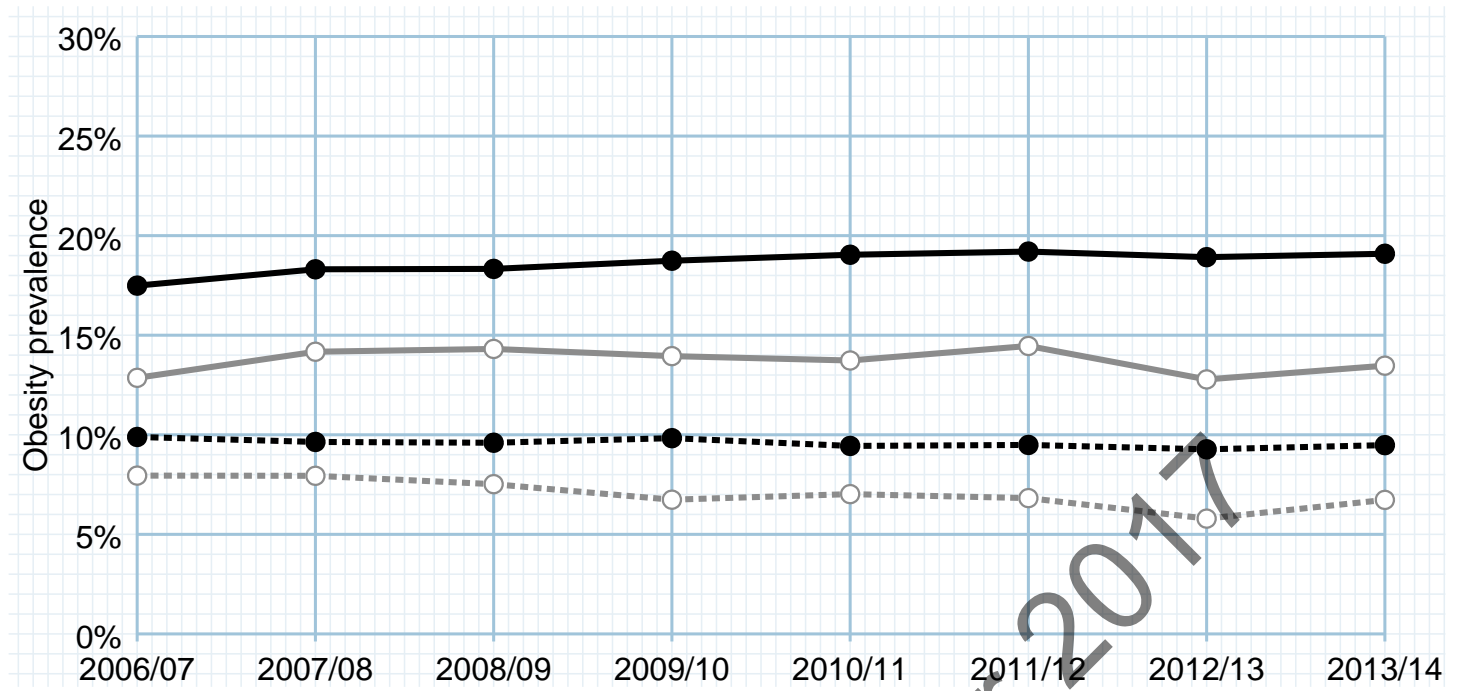

Prevalence of obesity is higher in your school compared to the total for all schools in AnyTown LA.

Prevalence in England is 13.9%.

Please note that where your school is compared to its local authority and to England, the comparison takes into account whether your school includes children aged 4-5 years and aged 10-11 years. Only pupils in the same age range as those attending your school count towards the result.

Obesity prevalence, AnyTown LA and England

Reception: ●-●- England ○-○- AnyTown LA
 Year 6: ●-●- England ○-○- AnyTown LA

Obesity prevalence is higher among children attending schools in the more deprived areas of England.

Your school is situated in an area in the least deprived quintile.

Obesity prevalence by deprivation quintile, England

