Section 1: Principles Of The Armed Forces Covenant

- 1.1 Rupert Harvey of Redmayne-Bentley LLP Shrewsbury Office will endeavour in his business dealings to uphold the key principles of the Armed Forces Covenant, which are:
 - no member of the Armed Forces Community should face disadvantage in the provision of public and commercial services compared to any other citizen
 - in some circumstances special treatment may be appropriate especially for the injured or bereaved.

Section 2: Demonstrating our Commitment

- 2.1 Rupert Harvey of Redmayne-Bentley LLP Shrewsbury Office recognises the value serving personnel, reservists, veterans and military families bring to our business. We will seek to uphold the principles of the Armed Forces Covenant, by:
 - promoting the fact that we are an armed forces-friendly organisation;
 - aiming to actively participate in Armed Forces Day;
 - offering a discount to members of the Armed Forces Community of 20% on the standard fees and commissions in the following departments:
 - o Dealing commissions on Execution-Only, Advisory and Discretionary accounts
 - o Annual management fees charged for Advisory and Discretionary accounts
 - All appointments are free of any charges to members of the Armed Forces Community;
 - (NB. we cannot offer any reductions on VAT or disbursements);
 - (NB. Minimum commissions apply these will not be discounted. A Settlement and Compliance fee and other potential charges e.g. ISA annual administration charge would not be discounted);
 - Fees, commissions and charges are subject to change and should be clarified before any services are undertaken.
- 2.2 We will publicise these commitments where possible through our literature and/or on our website, setting out how we will seek to honour them and inviting feedback from the Service community and our customers on how we are doing.
