Tell the National Yachtline if:

- you have any goods in excess of the travellers' allowance listed or you have on board goods which are to be treated as duty-free stores
- you have cash equivalent of 10,000 euros or more to declare
- you have any prohibited or restricted goods, a list of the most common of these is shown below
- there is any notifiable illness on board
- there are any people on board who need immigration clearance, or
- any repairs or modifications, other than running repairs, which have been carried out since the vessel last left the EU

Don't take down the Q flag until Customs have given clearance.

In addition you may also bring back:

Tobacco

200 cigarettes, or 100 cigarillos, or 50 cigars, or 250g of tobacco.

The other goods allowance (for example, perfume and electrical goods) for passengers travelling by private plane or boat for pleasure purposes is £270.
