For example, if you were a defendant in a criminal case in the Magistrates or Crown Court and are making a claim for judicial review of a decision in that case, the prosecution must be named as an interested party. In a claim which does not relate to a decision of a court or tribunal, you should give details of any persons directly affected by the decision you wish to challenge.

If you consider there is more than one interested party, set out their details on a separate sheet, marking that sheet so that it is clear it relates to this part of the claim form.
