About this form
Use this form to claim back tax we owe you on a flexible access pension payment you recently received where you've:
• taken a pension flexibility payment which used up all your fund
• received a serious ill health lump sum payment
• received a P45 from your pension provider
If you're not a UK resident for tax purposes you don't need to complete this form. Instead, go to www.gov.uk/tax-foreign-income/taxed-twice or phone the Taxes Helpline on 0300 200 3300.
So that we can make sure we repay the right amount of tax to you, please complete this form with details of any other income that you expect to receive during the tax year. If you don't know the final figures enter the most accurate estimates you can.
If you fill in a Self Assessment (SA) Tax Return:
• you'll need to tell us in the declaration section of this form whether or not you want us to include estimated SA income when calculating your repayment
• and you don't want us to include estimated SA income in your claim you don't need to include it when completing this form
• you'll still need to pay any balancing payments owed and payments on account when due, you can ask us to use your repayment to lower your payments on account

What to do now
Fill in questions 1 to 9 below, then complete all other questions which are relevant to you.
Please use whole numbers, rounded down to the nearest pound.
Please make sure that you sign the declaration on page 8.
For further guidance you can call Tax help for Older People on 0845 601 3321 or 01308 488 066. They're an independent charity which provide free tax advice to older people on low incomes.
If you need a large print version of the form please phone the Taxes Helpline on 0300 200 3300.

Employment income

Enter your total pay from all employment (including any part-time work) before tax is taken off. You should include the income you expect to receive from 6 April to 5 April of the tax year you received your flexibly accessed pension payment. If you have more than one job, list each employer and the amount of expected pay from each.

If you have any taxable benefits such as a company car or medical insurance, you also need to include an estimated figure for these. For more information on Tax and National Insurance on company benefits, go to www.gov.uk/tax-company-benefits

If you’re not sure of the amount of taxable benefit that you are going to receive, you can ask your employer for an estimate of the amount for the tax year.

UK pension income
We will ask about State Pension details at question 14.

This includes income from:
• pension annuities
• workplace
• occupational and personal pensions
• small pension (trivial commutation)
• flexible pension payments paid as lump sums
• serious ill health lump sum
• lump sum death benefit payment

Customers filling in this form shouldn’t include non-taxable income in this section so any lump sum death benefit payment that is tax free, should not be declared.

Enter the full amount of any UK pension income that you expect to get before tax is taken off and the taxable part of the flexible pension payment (this will be shown on Part 1A of the form P45 that your pension provider gave you).

For more information on how your pension income is taxed, go to www.gov.uk/tax-on-pension

Taxable state benefits

The most common taxable state benefits are:

- taxable Incapacity Benefit
- Jobseeker’s Allowance
- State Pension
- taxable Employment and Support Allowance
- taxable Carer’s Allowance

If you put off claiming your State Pension and you’ve received or expect to receive a lump sum this tax year you should include the amount in this section. For more information on benefits and a full list of all taxable state benefits, go to www.gov.uk/income-tax/taxfree-and-taxable-state-benefits

List each type of taxable state benefit and the amount you get or expect to get separately.

To work out the amount you will get, multiply the amount of your regular payment by the number of payments you expect to get in the tax year.

Taxed interest on UK savings and investment income

As well as bank and building society interest, include interest from other deposit takers and interest paid by:

- UK authorised unit trusts (AUTs)
- open-ended investment companies (OEICs)
- National Savings and Investment products such as fixed rate Guaranteed Income or Growth Bonds
- investment trusts
- Payment Protection Insurance (PPI) compensation payments

The bank should have sent you statements showing the interest paid.

Only enter details of any interest that will be taxed before you receive it. If you have a joint account only enter your share, usually 50% of the interest received.

These investments sometimes pay dividends. If this applies then you will need to answer the questions under Dividends from UK companies. For more information on bank and building society accounts, go to www.gov.uk/apply-tax-free-interest-on-savings

  - Easy Access Savings Accounts (EASAs)
  - Income Bonds
  - Investment Accounts
- bank and building society accounts and other deposit takers (including where you completed an R85)
- interest paid on private loans
- interest received on Payment Protection Insurance (PPI) Compensation payments

You don’t need to include tax exempt products such as ISAs in this section.

For more information about investments that give a tax-free return, go to www.gov.uk/apply-tax-free-interest-on-savings

If you have a joint account only enter your share, usually 50%, of the interest received and only enter interest that will not be taxed before you receive it.

If you get interest from National Savings Ordinary Accounts only enter the amount above £70.

Gift Aid payments

The Gift Aid scheme is for gifts of money to Charities or Community Amateur Sports Clubs (CASCs). The charity or CASC will ask you to declare that you pay UK tax and will then claim the tax back from HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC). If you haven't paid tax equal to the amount the charity or CASC claims back we will include the difference when we work out your repayment.

For more information on Giving to charity through Gift Aid, go to www.gov.uk/donating-to-charity/gift-aid

What to do now

We cannot deal with your claim without arts 2 and 3 of your P45 form, your pension provider should have given you this. If you have lost or not received your P45 ask your pension provider for duplicate details before sending this form. If you later find the original P45, you must not give parts 2 and 3 to any new employer or pension provider because this may affect the tax you pay at the end of the year. Do not send photocopies.

Please select one of the options below

☐ I have enclosed parts 2 and 3 of my form P45 ‘Details of employee leaving work’

☐ I can’t get a form P45

Please tell us why in the box below, for example because you are retired or a UK Crown servant employed abroad.

☐ Check you have completed all parts of the form that are relevant to you

☐ Check that you have completed, signed and dated the declaration on page 8

How we use your information

HM Revenue and Customs is a Data Controller under the Data Protection Act 1998. We hold information for the purposes specified in our notification to the Information Commissioner, including the assessment and collection of tax and duties, the payment of benefits and the prevention and detection of crime, and may use this information for any of them.

We may get information about you from others, or we may give information to them. If we do, it will only be as the law permits to:

• check the accuracy of information
• prevent or detect crime
• protect public funds

We may check information we receive about you with what is already in our records. This can include information provided by you, as well as by others, such as other government departments or agencies and overseas tax and customs authorities. We will not give information to anyone outside HM Revenue and Customs unless the law permits us to do so. For more information go to www.gov.uk/hmrc and look for Data Protection Act within the Search facility.
