

Fair Processing Notice – Government-to-Government (G2G) Agreement to support the delivery of the Pan American and Parapan American Games.

On the 19th April, 2017, International Trade Minister Greg Hands signed an arrangement with the organisers of the 2019 Pan-American Games, to make the UK the lead partner in helping deliver the fourth largest sporting event in the world.

The games, hosted in Peru for the first time in Lima in 2019, will bring together the nations of North and South America, with over 5,000 competitors in 36 different sports. As part of the agreement, a team of UK experts with experience running over 100 major sporting events including the 2012 Olympics will work closely with the Lima 2019 organising committee, helping it deliver the infrastructure and organisation of the games on-time and on-budget.
