

12 July 2018

This release contains provisional figures for the first three quarters of the 2017/18 academic year (August 2017 to April 2018) for England.

Data are subject to change until final data is published in November 2018 as some learning providers report some of their data for this period later in the year. Provider behaviour in reporting can also change from year to year.

As of May 2017 there were significant changes to how apprenticeship funding works including the introduction of the apprenticeship levy and Apprenticeship Service (please see section 4 for more detail). The profile of apprenticeship starts changed significantly in the run up to the introduction of the levy and beyond, so care should be taken in comparing and interpreting in-year data presented in this release to figures reported at this time in 2016/17.

Apprenticeship starts for the first three quarters of the 2017/18 academic year decreased in comparison to figures reported at this time in 2016/17 and 2015/16.

There were 290,500 apprenticeship starts reported so far for the first three quarters of the 2017/18 academic year, compared to 440,300 and 384,500 reported at this time in 2016/17 and 2015/16, a decrease of 34.0 and 24.5 per cent respectively. There have been 158,300 levy-supported starts so far, of which, 137,200 were reported in the first three quarters for 2017/18.

There were 1,410,000 apprenticeship starts reported to April 2018 since May 2015 and 3,787,600 starts reported to April 2018 since May 2010.

<sup>2</sup> First reported data are those initially reported in-year, and final reported data are those submitted in October for that academic year. The chart shows data aggregated for each quarter of the academic year, which runs from August to July.

All-age government funded apprenticeship participation reported so far for the 2017/18 academic year is lower than that reported at the same point in 2016/17 and 2015/16.

753,200 learners participated on an apprenticeship in the first three quarters of the 2017/18 academic year, based on provisional data, compared to 879,500 and 814,400 reported at this time in 2016/17 and 2015/16, a decrease of 14.4 and 7.5 per cent respectively.

<sup>3</sup> 2017/18 data show in-year data reported so far for 'August to April'. The chart shows full final year data for previous years as well as a breakdown for the period 'August to April' as reported at the equivalent time to this publication to allow comparisons.

About this release

This apprenticeships and traineeships release presents information on apprenticeships (16+) and traineeships (16-24) in England, reported to date for the 2017 to 2018 academic year. Apprenticeships are paid jobs that incorporate on- and off-the-job training leading to nationally recognised qualifications. As an employee, apprentices earn as they learn and gain practical skills in the workplace. A traineeship is an education and training programme with work experience. Traineeships were introduced in the 2013/14 academic year to provide young people with essential work preparation, English, maths and work experience to secure an apprenticeship or other work.<sup>4</sup>

Changes included in this release

This release includes provisional figures for the first three quarters of the academic year 2017/18 based on information that has been reported to the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA) by further education colleges and providers in June 2018. The data will change as further data returns relating to the period are received later in the year.

We have also included data reported so far on the apprenticeship levy supported starts since the introduction of the apprenticeship levy in April 2017.

Changes in the next release

This publication will be released twice per year (January and July) as a stand-alone document, and will be subsumed and combined into the main Further Education and Skills Release each March and November.

The next release containing apprenticeships and traineeships statistics will be the Further Education and Skills release in November 2018. This will include final full year data for the 2017/18 academic year (August 2017 to July 2018). The next apprenticeships and traineeships release in this format will be in January 2019 and provide provisional data for the first quarter of the 2018/19 academic year (August 2018 to October 2018).

Transparency data

On 12 July 2018, the latest monthly statistics were released providing registration and commitments data on the apprenticeship service (to May 2018) and headline monthly data on apprenticeship starts (to April 2018). This provides transparency on the development of the apprenticeships levy and the apprenticeship system as a whole. The monthly data provides timely insight into the headline activity and will be published while the levy system is bedding in. We will publish these statistics on a monthly basis but may adjust content and timing as feedback is assessed.

These monthly statistics are available here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/further-education-and-skills-statistical-first-release-sfr#2018-releases>

A back series of monthly apprenticeship starts from the 2014/15 academic year are available here:

This apprenticeships and traineeships release provides further breakdowns on the headline apprenticeships starts initially reported as transparency data in the monthly publication.

1. In-year apprenticeships and traineeships for England, 2017/18

Figures for the 2017/18 academic year (August 2017 to April 2018) are based on information that has been reported to the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA) in June 2018 by further education colleges and providers. The data provide an early view of performance and will change as further data returns are received. Since providers report some of their data for this period later in the year, the data are subject to change (in either direction) until final data is received.

At this point in the year, 2017/18 figures are referred to as reported so far or reported to date to reflect this. This release reports on the provisional first three quarters for the 2017/18 academic year.

It is not possible to determine how complete or incomplete the information returned so far is, therefore care should be taken when comparing data reported so far in 2017/18 to the equivalent reporting period in 2016/17<sup>5</sup>.

This is particularly the case as provider reporting behaviour may change year to year. In addition, provider reporting behaviour may have particularly been affected since the introduction of the apprenticeship levy in April 2017.

Therefore, the equivalent reporting period for the 2015/16 academic year has also been included in this release.

More accurate comparisons can be made once final returns for the academic year are made (data returned in October 2018, due to be published in November 2018).

As with many policy areas, further education is a broad and changing topic. In order to understand the impact of policy and methodology changes on any data published in this release, details are provided in the quality and methodology document that accompanies the Further Education and Skills: March release.

Apprenticeship starts (Table 2.1)

Apprenticeship Levy

The profile of apprenticeship starts changed significantly in the run up to the introduction of the levy and beyond, therefore care should be taken when comparing individual quarters with previous years, as they are unlikely to provide a meaningful year on year trend.

This is especially the case when trying to compare starts in quarter 3 of 2017/18 to starts in quarter 3 of 2016/17, as there was an unusually large increase in starts in March and April 2017, and then an unusually large decrease in starts in May 2017 when compared to previous years. This can be seen in Figure 1 where the increase in starts between quarter 3 2015/16 and quarter 3 2016/17 can be directly visualised.

For further details on monthly apprenticeship starts please refer to the Apprenticeships and Levy Statistics release:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/further-education-and-skills-statistical-first-release-sfr#2018-releases>

3. Further information is available

Additional breakdowns of apprenticeship and traineeship statistics are published online as supplementary tables. These include breakdowns by age, gender, ethnicity, learners with learning difficulties and/or disabilities, region, local authority, parliamentary constituency and sector subject area.

Please see the FE Data Library here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/fe-data-library>

Monthly transparency data on apprenticeship and levy statistics are also available here:
<https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/further-education-and-skills-statistical-first-release-sfr#2018-releases>

4. The apprenticeship funding system

Changes in the way apprenticeship funding works were introduced and implemented from May 2017. Guidance about these changes and paying the apprenticeship levy can be found at this link:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/apprenticeship-levy-how-it-will-work/apprenticeship-levy-how-it-will-work>.

A key aspect of these changes was the introduction of the apprenticeship service, an online service to allow employers to choose and pay for apprenticeship training more easily. Levy-payers are able to register on the apprenticeship service so that they can:

1. receive levy funds to spend on apprenticeships
2. manage their apprentices
3. pay their training provider

5. Other Technical information

For more technical information, please see the latest Further Education and Skills release and the accompanying quality and methodology information document here:

This provides further information on the data sources, their coverage and quality and explains the methodology used in producing the data, including how it is validated and processed.

6. National Statistics

The United Kingdom Statistics Authority has designated these statistics as National Statistics, in accordance with the Statistics and Registration Service Act 2007 and signifying compliance with the Code of Practice for Official Statistics.

Designation can be broadly interpreted to mean that the statistics:

- meet identified user needs;
- are well explained and readily accessible;
- are produced according to sound methods, and
- are managed impartially and objectively in the public interest.

Once statistics have been designated as National Statistics it is a statutory requirement that the Code of Practice shall continue to be observed.

The Department has a set of statistical policies in line with the Code of Practice for Official Statistics.
