Section 6

R9 The Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner (OISC) regulates United Kingdom based immigration advisers. As a requirement of Section 84 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999, United Kingdom representatives, who offer advice and services in relation to an application, will need to be regulated by the OISC unless they are authorised to practice by a designated legal professional body or fall within a category of persons specified in an order made by The Secretary of State under subsection 84(4) (d) of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999.

The representative should indicate whether he/she is regulated by the OISC, or the basis on which he/she is otherwise authorised to act in this capacity on the migrant's behalf.

An advisor could be committing a criminal offence if he/she acts on the applicant's behalf without being OISC regulated, or otherwise authorised in accordance with Section 84 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999.

R11-R12 If the representative is regulated by a designated legal professional body, listed below, or if he/she works under the supervision of such a person, they will not be required to be regulated by the OISC.

Designated bodies are:

- The Law Society;
- The Law Society of Scotland;
- The Law Society of Northern Ireland;
- The Institute of Legal Executives;

- The General Council of the Bar;
- The Faculty of Advocates;
- The General Council of the Bar of Northern Ireland.

The representative should indicate of which organisation he/she is a member. The representative should indicate whether he/she is personally a member of this organisation or whether he/she is working under the authorisation of another registered member.

Where the representative is not a direct registration holder and is working under the supervision of another registered person, the representative should name the registered supervisor under whom he/she is working.

If a representative makes an application on behalf of an applicant, and that representative is not permitted to provide advice and immigration services (by section 84 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999), the Home Office will inform both the representative and applicant of the requirements of the Act, and send further letters (if applicable) to the applicant stated on the application.
