Elthorne Park High School	Community School	None	0.8	1105	47	0	71%	Good	19-Mar2015	Minimal: The free school is unlikely to affect the long-term financial viability of Elthorne Park High School. Elthorne Park School has a good Ofsted rating and results are above local authority and national averages.
Brentford School for Girls	Academy Converter	None	0.8	949	163	21	51%	Good	28-Sep2011	High: The free school is likely have an impact on the long-term financial viability of Brentford School for Girls. Although Brentford School for Girls has a good Ofsted rating, there is a large number of surplus places. In addition, KS4 results are below local authority and national averages. However, as a single sex school, it does have a very different offer to the new free school. In addition, the forecast place shortfalls in the area should reduce the impact of the new places created by the free school.

Local Colleges

Name	Type	Faith	Distance from FS (miles)	Number of pupils ages 16-18	Approx. % of pupils at the college ages 16-18	Average points score 2015	Impact (preliminary judgement)
West Thames College	General Further Education College	None	2.0	1837	51%	178.3	Moderate: The free school may have an impact on the long-term financial viability of West Thames College, given its proximity and the fact that the average points score is below local authority and national averages. However, as a FE institution with only 51% of students aged 16-18, the impact of the new free school will be limited.
Richmond Adult Community College	General Further Education College	None	2.3	122	5%	No KS5 data	Minimal: The free school is unlikely to affect the long-term financial viability of Richmond Adult Community College. The college is a FE institution with only 5% of students aged 16-18.
Richmond-upon-Thames College	Tertiary College	None	3.4	2932	69%	192	Moderate: The free school may have an impact on the long term financial viability of Richmond-upon-Thames College, given its proximity and the fact that the average points score is below local authority and national averages. However, only 69% of Richmond-upon-Thames College students are aged 16-18. In addition, the College's education offer is more focused on vocational and specialist qualifications, which is different to the new free school's offer.

William Morris Sixth Form	Community School (sixth form)	None	4.1	712	89%	194.4	Moderate: The free school may have an impact on the long term financial viability of William Morris Sixth Form. The Sixth Form has 89% of students aged 16-18 and the average points score is below local authority and national averages. However, only 2% of pupils aged 16-18 in Ealing attend sixth-form colleges, which will reduce the impact of the new free school.
Ealing, Hammersmith and West London College	General Further Education College	None	4.3	3012	35%	160.4	Minimal: The free school is unlikely to affect the long-term financial viability of Ealing, Hammersmith and West London College. Ealing, Hammersmith and West London College, as an FE institution, has a different education offer to the free school and only 35% of students are aged 16-18.
St Charles Catholic Sixth Form College	Sixth Form College (Voluntary Aided)	Roman Catholic	4.5	1104	100%	186.5	Moderate: The free school may have an impact on the long-term financial viability of St Charles Catholic Sixth Form College. However, this impact will be reduced by the fact that St Charles Catholic Sixth Form College prioritises the admission of Catholic students. In addition, only 2% of 16-18 year olds in Ealing attend sixth-form colleges.
The College of North West London	General Further Education College	None	4.8	1152	24%	111.9	Minimal: The free school is unlikely to affect the long-term financial viability of The College of North West London. The College of North West London, as an FE institution, has a different education offer to the free school and only 24% of students are aged 16-18.

St Dominic's Sixth Form College	Sixth Form College (Voluntary Aided)	Roman Catholic	5.0	1010	100%	232.5	Moderate: The free school may have an impact on the long-term financial viability of St Dominic's Sixth Form College. However, this impact will be reduced by the fact that St Dominic's Sixth Form College prioritises the admission of Catholic students. In addition, only 2% of 16-18 year olds in Ealing attend sixth-form colleges.
The Crest Sixth Form	Sixth Form Centres	None	5.5	243	100%	No KS5 data	Moderate: The free school may have an impact on the long-term financial viability of The Crest Sixth Form. However, the impact will be reduced by the fact that the new free school is located 5½ miles' away and only 2% of 16-18 year olds in Ealing attend sixth-form colleges.
Kensington and Chelsea College	General Further Education College	None	5.5	383	5%	No KS5 data	Minimal: The free school is unlikely to affect the long-term financial viability of Kensington and Chelsea College. Kensington and Chelsea College, as an FE institution, has a different education offer to the free school and only 5% of students are aged 16-

*Provisional (non-final) school performance data was used as part of this impact assessment. This is because the assessment was needed before the performance data checking exercise had been fully completed (and therefore, had to be made using the data available at that time). For this reason, the final performance measures for some schools may have been different from those shown in this report.
