

Global Disability Summit 2018

1. Organisation

Type of Organisation: Government

Name of Organisation: Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare

2. Charter for Change

My organization signs up to the Summit Charter for change (yes)

3. Organization's commitment to achieve the rights of people with disabilities in developing countries

Zimbabwe commits to working progressively towards the advancement of the rights of persons with disabilities (PWDs), with a special focus on women and girls. Zimbabwe undertakes to domesticate the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and to expedite the formulation of an enabling policy framework for PWDs. Zimbabwe will also ensure the development of a comprehensive and practical National Action Plan for implementation through an all-inclusive consultative process and pledges that by the end of 2021 concrete measures will be put in place to guarantee the enjoyment of rights by PWDs.