

Domestic precursor licence and registration requirements

The licensing and registration requirements listed in this table are relevant to the precursor chemical listed and all mixtures and natural products containing them. It excludes:

- a. medicinal products as defined by Directive 2001/83/EC; & veterinary medicinal products as defined by Directive 2001/82/EC b.
- b. pharmaceutical preparations, mixtures, natural products & other preparations containing scheduled substances that are compounded in such a way that they cannot be easily used or extracted by readily applicable or economically viable means
