Date: 01 Oct 18

Position: [Position Title]

Name: [Name]

Signed:

The School of Military Ltd

Signed on behalf of:

Families contribute to our business and our country.

Both Regular and Reserve, Veterans and military.

Community: We recognise the value serving personnel.

Forces Covenant and support the Armed Forces.

We, the undersigned, commit to honour the Armed Forces Covenant.

The School of Military Ltd

[Emblem]
upholding this Covenant demonstrates the value of their contribution. This has no greater expression than in forces. Recognising those who have performed military duty in the country and bodics, provide organisations, and the actions of individuals in supporting the Armed
This obligation involves the whole of society. It includes voluntary and charitable

Injured and the Bereaved appropriable in some cases, especially for those who have given most such as the citizens in the provision of public and commercial services. Special consideration is served in the past, and their families, should face no disadvantage compared to other those who serve in the Armed Forces, whether Regular or Reserve, those who have

Our respect and support, and fair treatment.
Our service, the Army and the Royal Air Force, together with their families. They deserve forces. In return, the whole nation has a moral obligation to the members of the Naval families also play a vital role in supporting the operational effectiveness of our Armed danger and, sometimes, suffering serious injury or death as a result of their duty.
The first duty of government is the defence of the realm. Our Armed Forces fulfill this

And their Families
All those who serve or have served in the Armed Forces of the Crown

- and

Her Majesty’s Government
The People of the United Kingdom
An Enduring Covenant Between
The Armed Forces Covenant
We will seek to honour them and inviting feedback from the service community and our customers through our literature and on our website, setting out how we are doing.

We will publicly declare our Commitments through our literature and on our website, setting out how we are doing.

1.1 We at the School of Military Life will endeavour in our business dealings to uphold the key principles of the Armed Forces Covenant, which are:

- No member of the Armed Forces Community should face disadvantage in the provision of public and commercial services compared to any other citizen.
- In some circumstances, special treatment may be appropriate, especially for the injured or bereaved.

Section 1: Principles of The Armed Forces Covenant

Section 2: Demonstrating our Commitment

- Offering support to our local cadet units, either in our local community or in Local schools.
- Inclusivity by accommodating their training and deployment where possible.
- Seeking to support our employees who choose to be members of the Reserve forces.
- Before, during and after a partner’s deployment.
- Endeavouring to offer a degree of flexibility in granting leave for Service spouses and partners.
- Securing to support the employment of Service spouses and partners.

Leaves:

Transition Partnership (TTP) in order to establish a tailored employment pathway for Service

- Seeking to support the employment of Veterans young and old, and working with the career
- Promoting the fact that we are an armed forces-friendly organisation.

Families bring to our business. We will seek to uphold the principles of the Armed Forces Covenant by:

- Timing to actively participate in Armed Forces Day

- Where possible:

Where possible:

Where possible:

Where possible:

Where possible:

Where possible:

2.1 The School of Military Life recognises the value serving personnel, veterans, reservists, veterans and military