

RESPONSE 51

01 September 2016

14:56

Subject	MRO / Free Of Beer Tie
From	[REDACTED]
To	Pubs Consultation Responses
Sent	18 January 2016 21:14

Dear sir or madam

I have been a licensee at [REDACTED] for over [REDACTED] years. The pub is owned by [REDACTED] and I have a 30 entrepreneurial lease.

Do I support the MRO and the Free of Tie with all my heart and blood sweat and tears , do I trust [REDACTED] only as far as I can throw them.

[REDACTED] have tried too push me out of my pub for the last [REDACTED] years because I have not signed a new rental agreement therefore I'm potentially in a position to trigger the MRO option.

They have fined me thousands of pounds in the last few months because I brought out of my tie , they will not supply me with beer unless the order is paid for first I receive no discount because that would put in position were I may be able to make a profit. They know that my pub would be eligible for the MRO as I'm only 40 feet from a [REDACTED] that has a turnover of £[REDACTED] per week , My turnover is £[REDACTED] a week. They have fined me for beer that they have supplied me because it did not have the pubco markings on it and i did not inform the pubco they blamed me for buying in , priceless - crooks . I have seen first hand how these company's operate they lie cheat and con those who have no clue as to who they are and what there objectives are. All they are interested in is money but at any price the " pub " is worth more to them as land than as a business. I could say so much but I fear that no one will listen because I don't have a voice I have a group of friends LSL without these guys my I would have done something very stupid. But why should the likes of [REDACTED] destroy so many lives.

I earn less than £[REDACTED] a year for [REDACTED] hrs a week I invested over £[REDACTED] in the beginning I cannot just walk away.

Please don't let the landlords and landlady's down.
Give us a fighting chance.

[REDACTED]