State-led enforcement

1 Do you think workers typically receive pay during periods of annual leave or when they are off sick?

Yes

Please give reasons:

Most workers are properly employed and receive holiday and sick pay. However casual workers, those on zero-hours contracts and those rightly or wrongly classed as self-employed generally do not.

2 Do you think problems are concentrated in any sector of the economy, or are suffered by any particular groups of workers? If yes, please specify which sectors/ groups and give reasons.

Yes

Please type your response in the box below.:

Those in low paid casual, zero-hours or part-time work.

3 What barriers do you think are faced by individuals seeking to ensure they receive these payments?

Please type your response in the box below.:

Fear of discrimination on future employment, lack of time and money to pursue a case and difficulty in understanding procedures. For foreign nationals, a fear of whether they will be allowed to stay in UK.

4 What would be the advantages and disadvantages for businesses of state enforcement in these areas?

Advantages:

Helps those less able to pursue cases themselves.

Disadvantages:

Support state enforcement in principle, but am not sure that HMRC current have either the capacity or capability to enforce rules effectively and efficiently.

5 What other measures, if any, could government take to encourage workers to raise concerns over these rights with their employer or the state?

Enforcement of employment tribunal awards

6 Do you agree there is a need to simplify the process for enforcement of employment tribunals?

Not Answered

Please give reasons:

7 The HMCTS enforcement reform project will improve user accessibility and support by introducing a digital point of entry for users interested in starting enforcement proceedings. How best do you think HMCTS can do this and is there anything further we can do to improve users' accessibility and provide support to users?

Please type your response in the box below.:

8 The HMCTS enforcement reform project will simplify and digitise requests for enforcement through the introduction of a simplified digital system. How do you think HMCTS can simplify the enforcement process further for users?

Please type your response in the box below.:

9 The HMCTS enforcement reform project will streamline enforcement action by digitising and automating processes where appropriate. What parts of the civil enforcement process do you think would benefit from automation and what processes do you feel should remain as they currently are?

Please type your response in the box below.:

10 Do you think HMCTS should make the enforcement of employment tribunals swifter by defaulting all judgments to the High Court for enforcement or should the option for each user to select High Court or County Court enforcement remain?

Please type your response in the box below and explain your answer.:

11 Do you have any further views on how the enforcement process can be simplified to make it more effective for users?

Establishing a naming scheme

12 When do you think it is most appropriate to name an employer for non-payment?

Not Answered

Please give reasons for your answer and if other please specify:

13 What other, if any, representations should be accepted for employers to not be named? Please give reasons.

Please type your response in the box below.:

With agreement of employee, to protect identity of employee.

14 What other ways do you think government could incentivise prompt payment of employment tribunal awards?

Please type your response in the box below.:

The payment should be made in part by the government, and the company then owe the money (with interest) to the government.

Awards and penalties at employment tribunal

15 Do you think that the power to impose a financial penalty for aggravated breach could be used more effectively if the legislation set out what types of breaches of employment law would be considered as an aggravated breach?

Yes

Please explain your answer:

Some employers have successfully ignored tribunals.

16 Is what constitutes aggravated breach best left to judicial discretion or should we make changes to the circumstances that these powers can be applied?

Not Answered

Please explain your answer:

17 Can you provide any categories that you think should be included as examples of aggravated breach?

Please type your response in the box below.:

Cases which are very similar to previous cases for the same employer.

Non payment could also be considered a breach, and an aggregated breach of not paid for a further period of time.

18 When considering the grounds for a second offence breach of employment status who should be responsible for providing evidence (or absence) of a first offence?

Please type your response in the box below and explain your answer.:

19 What factors should be considered in determining whether a subsequent claim is a 'second offence'? e.g. time period between claim and previous judgment, type of claim (different or the same), different claimants or same claimants, size of workforce etc.

Please type your response in the box below.:

20 How should a subsequent claim be deemed a "second offence"? e.g. broadly comparable facts, same or materially same working arrangements, other etc.

Please type your response in the box below.:

21 Of the options outlined which do you believe would be the strongest deterrent to repeated non-compliance?

Aggravated breach penalty

Please explain the reasons for your answers:

22 Are there any alternative powers that could be used to achieve the aim of taking action against repeated non-compliance?
