ANNEX 1

TO CLAIMANT'S STATEMENT OF GROUNDS FOR AMENDMENT OF GB 2,365,712

CLAIMS

1.   A ~~computing device~~smart phone comprising a display screen, the ~~computing device~~smart phone being ~~able~~ configured to display on the screen a main hierarchical menu system, wherein the ~~device~~smart phone is also ~~able~~ configured to display, in addition to the main hierarchical menu system, application summary windows for each of several different applications, in which each summary window serves as a summary of a particular application by virtue of displaying a limited list of (i) several commonly used functions offered within that particular application and/or (ii) stored data commonly accessed by that particular application, wherein the smart phone is configured to, for a given application:

display, in a summary window for the given application, both a limited list of several commonly used functions offered within the given application and stored data commonly accessed by the given application;

display the said commonly used functions offered within the given application without opening the given application;

display the said stored data commonly accessed by the given application without opening the given application; and open the given application when an item of the said displayed commonly used functions or the said displayed stored data is selected.

2.   The ~~computing device~~smart phone of Claim 1 in which selecting a commonly used function listed in the summary window causes the ~~related~~ given application to open and that selected commonly used function to be activated.

3.   The ~~computing device~~smart phone of Claim 1 or 2 in which an application launcher lists the names and/or icons of several applications and selecting a name or icon causes the summary window for ~~that~~ the given application to be opened.

4.   The ~~computing device~~smart phone of any preceding claim in which the kinds of content of ~~the~~a summary window for ~~the~~a given application is selected using a process in which the ~~device~~smart phone learns what functionality and/or stored data types are of interest to any given user.

5.   The ~~computing device~~smart phone of any preceding claim in which the user can define what functionality and/or stored data types are of interest to that user for the summary window for ~~an~~ the given application.

6.   The ~~computing device~~smart phone of any preceding claim in which the smart phone is configured to vary the functionality and/or stored data types for the~~a~~ summary window for the~~a~~ given application ~~varies~~ with the environment of the ~~device~~smart phone.

7.   The ~~computing device~~smart phone of any preceding claim in which the smart phone is configured to vary the functionality and/or stored data types for the~~a~~ summary window for the~~a~~ given application ~~varies~~ with the actions of the user.

8.   The ~~computing device~~smart phone of any preceding claim in which opening the~~a~~ summary window for the~~a~~ given application does not result in ~~that~~ the given application being opened.

9.   The ~~computing device~~smart phone of any preceding claim in which the summary window is a frame which includes the name of the ~~associated~~ given application.

10.   The ~~computing device~~smart phone of ~~Claim 1~~any preceding claim in which the summary window ~~further~~ displays a limited list of stored data commonly accessed by the given application~~data stored in that application~~.

11.   ~~A computing device as claimed in any preceding claim, being a mobile telephone.~~

12.   ~~A computing device as claimed in any preceding claim 1 – 10, being a PC.~~

11.   The smart phone of any preceding claim in which the given application is a messages application.

12~~3~~.	A computer program which, when running on a smart phone ~~computing device~~, causes the smart phone ~~computing device~~ to operate as a smart phone ~~computing device~~ as claimed in any of Claims 1 to~~-~~ 11~~2~~.

13~~4~~.	The computer program of Claim 13~~2~~, being an operating system program.
