Office of the Public Guardian registers

The Office of the Public Guardian (OPG) maintains registers of:

- lasting powers of attorney (LPA)
- enduring powers of attorney (EPA)
- deputyship court orders

Anyone can apply for a search of these registers.

What you can find out

You can find out:

- if there is a registered lasting power of attorney (LPA), enduring power of attorney (EPA) or deputyship court order
- the registration date of the LPA or EPA, or date of court order
- the name of the person the LPA, EPA or deputyship order is about
- the date of birth of the person the LPA, EPA or deputyship order is about
- the names of attorneys or deputies
- whether decisions relate to property and finances or health and welfare
- whether there are any restrictions on the power of attorney or court order
- how attorneys or deputies are appointed to act
- whether the LPA, EPA or deputyship order is registered, cancelled, revoked or expired
- the expiry date of deputyship orders, where relevant

What you cannot find out

You cannot find out about:

- LPAs or EPAs we are currently registering
- applications for deputyship court orders that are in progress

What information you need to provide

You need to complete sections 1, 2 and 3 of this form.

We will only search the registers you tell us to. If you do not select an option, we will not perform a search.

We've put an asterix (*) next to information you must provide.

Section 4 of this form is optional. It only needs to be completed if you want to request additional information about someone.

Additional information

In some cases we may consider a request for additional information we don't keep on the registers.

To make this request complete section 4 of this form, stating:

- what information you need
- why you need this information
- what attempts you have made to get the information from the donor or client

We will consider each request on a case-by-case basis.
