

Area	Overview of proposal	Amount
Manchester City Council	Manchester City propose working intensively with a pupil referral unit on an initiative, working with young people at risk of serious violence and gang activity, including whole family therapy.	£ 241,000.00
Enfield Council	Enfield will introduce a school-based initiative in four primary schools aimed at improving awareness, resilience and sustainability.	£ 492,691.00
Lambeth Council	Lambeth identified a significant number of young people being arrested, but having no further action taken and being offered limited ongoing support. They propose putting a family worker in police stations to identify and work with these young people and their families.	£ 500,000.00
Brent Council	Brent will work with a voluntary programme, called 'Superhero's, to provide young people and their families with coping skills and diversionary activities.	£ 480,935.00
Sefton Council	Sefton propose a very targeted community ward programme. They will work in primary schools in a ward disproportionately affected, using the tested 'Get Away, Get Safe' programme for older children and provide awareness sessions to families, community and frontline staff.	£ 500,000.00
Redbridge Council	Redbridge will use a boxing-based charity run by an ex-gang member to promote confidence and deter young people from becoming involved in violence, alongside support for families.	£ 500,000.00
Greenwich Council	Greenwich will use mentors from Charlton Athletic Football Club to engage young people, training some to be ambassadors and provide counselling to families.	£ 498,611.50
Nottingham City Council	Nottingham will provide diversionary and awareness raising activities in schools through intensive 1-1's and universal sessions and improve predictive analytics.	£ 490,017.00
Bradford Council	Bradford want to extend their existing approach aimed at children aged 11+ in Bradford East to primary school age children and utilise police officers as case workers.	£ 473,062.00
Liverpool City Council	Liverpool will work with a voluntary organisation to deliver 1-1 and family mentoring to build whole family resilience.	£ 401,670.00
Newham Council	Newham will use a residential outreach organisation to teach families and young people practical and resilience skills.	£ 335,854.00
Coventry City Council	Coventry will deliver a 3-tier approach aimed at giving professionals additional training, raising awareness in schools and targeting whole family work in areas of greatest need.	£ 477,000.00
Kent County Council collaborative bid	Kent will deliver across the county to ensure continuing support as vulnerable people move throughout the county and across support services.	£ 1,362,645.00

Birmingham City Council in association with Birmingham Children's Trust	Birmingham will deliver whole family interventions and additional training to school staff and professionals. Utilising Emotion Coaching which supports young people on how to manage stress and using the same staff to deliver to ensure consistency and familiarity.	£ 485,845.00
Haringey Council	Haringey will use voluntary sector led workshops in pupil referral unit's, support groups for families and introduce a 'caring dad's course.'	£ 388,353.00
Sandwell Council	Sandwell will deliver universal school-based approach (primary and secondary) as well as 1-1 targeted mentoring programme and the roll out of 'Triple P' parenting programme.	£ 372,520.00
Islington Council	Islington will be supporting vulnerable children in the transition from primary to secondary school through specialist keyworkers, by providing additional training for professionals and through diversionary community activities, working with the Voluntary and Community Sector.	£ 184,000.00
Tower Hamlets Council	Tower Hamlets will roll out a dual approach focusing on preventative measures in schools, children's centres and health care settings to those at risk and a more intensive 'breaking the cycle approach' for those young people already involved in gang culture.	£ 499,459
Stoke-on-Trent Council	Stoke on Trent will take a preventative approach, using Trusted Adult Workers to deliver a 'Living Life to the Full' programme that seeks to enable young people at risk of criminal exploitation to learn skills that help to build resilience, confidence and positive ways to tackle problems.	£ 226,200
Central Bedfordshire Council	In Central Bedfordshire frontline workers from the voluntary and community sector will work alongside schools' staff to raise awareness, targeting 8-15 year olds and deliver parent/carer information sessions. The Local Authority will also co-ordinate youth crime themed events bringing together professionals from different disciplines to support the sharing of knowledge, skills and opportunities.	£ 202,000
Hammersmith and Fulham Council	Hammersmith and Fulham will appoint a Gangs co-ordinator to be a point of contact and work across agencies to ensure data is shared and activities are co-ordinated for at risk families. Activities will include family workshops and positive diversionary activities.	£ 360,000