BYE-LAWS

Made by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department under the provisions of the Military Lands Acts, 1892 to 1903, as amended by the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, made under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for regulating the use of the War Department land at Canterbury, in the County of Kent, and for prohibiting all intrusion on such land and all obstruction of the use thereof.

1. No costermonger, hawker, pedlar, huckster, marine store or other dealer, or rag and bone and bottle gatherer, or book-maker or racing or betting tout, or vendor of newspapers or any kind of literature, or person engaged in any similar traffic or occupation to any one of those specified, unless in possession of a Pass issued under the authority of the General Officer Commanding, Canterbury, shall intrude or enter, or be upon, the said War Department land for the purpose of selling, buying or trafficking, or otherwise carrying on his or her or any like business or calling.
2. No person shall enter or be upon the said War Department land for the purpose of idling, loitering, or behaving in an indecent or disorderly manner, or for the purpose of gaming, betting or wagering, or of pursuing or killing game or other animals.
3. No person shall enter or be upon the said War Department land for the purpose of carrying or of applying for permission to carry the kits of Soldiers or other persons, or of obtaining any other kind of casual employment.
4. No person shall enter or be upon the said War Department land for the purpose of removing Cartridge Cases, lead from the butts or any kind of metal or other material, unless duly authorised and in possession of a Pass issued under the authority of the General Officer Commanding, Canterbury.
5. No person whatever shall continue on the said War Department land after being warned off by an Officer or by any person acting under the authority of an Officer.
6. No person, unless in possession of a Pass issued under the authority of the General Officer Commanding, Canterbury, shall camp or bivouac or sleep out upon the said War Department land.

7. No person, without the authority of an Officer, shall deposit broken glass or other rubbish upon the said War Department land.
8. No night walker or common prostitute shall locate herself in, or trespass on, or resort to the said War Department land for the purpose of prostitution.
9. No person, without the authority of the General Officer Commanding, Canterbury, shall use the said War Department land for the purpose of grazing any horse, cow, sheep, or other animal.
10. No person, without the authority of an Officer, shall light a fire on the said War Department land for any purpose whatever, nor shall any person by throwing down lighted matches or in any other way cause a fire to break out on the said land.
11. No person shall ride a horse or bicycle upon any footpath by the side of any War Department road maintained by the War Department and situate on the said War Department land.
12. No driver of any motor car, motor cycle, or other self-propelled vehicle, shall drive at a speed exceeding 12 miles an hour on any road, or part of a road, within the said War Department land, maintained by the War Department, on which notices regulating the speed of such vehicles have been posted.
13. No driver of a hackney carriage, taxi-cab or other vehicle shall enter or be upon the said War Department land for the purpose of plying for hire without a Pass issued under the authority of the General Officer Commanding, Canterbury.
14. No motor car, cycle, or vehicle shall be driven over the said War Department land without a light between the hours of one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise.
15. The expression "War Department land at Canterbury" or "said War Department land" shall include all roads on such lands.
16. The following persons, viz. :—
  - (1) The General Officer Commanding, Canterbury;
  - (2) The Officer in Charge of the said War Department land;
  - (3) Any Officer, Warrant Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, or any Military Policeman, for the time being under the command of the said General Officer Commanding or of the said Officer in Charge;

(4) Any person authorised in writing under the hand of the said General Officer Commanding, or of the said Officer in Charge;

(5) Any Constable;

shall have power and are hereby authorised:—

(1) To remove from the said War Department land and take into custody without Warrant, and bring before a Court of Summary Jurisdiction, as provided by the Military Lands Acts, 1892 to 1903, to be dealt with according to law, any person contravening any of these Bye-laws.

(2) To remove from the said War Department land any vehicle, animal, or thing found therein, in contravention of any of these Bye-laws.

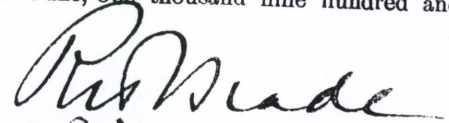

17. Any person doing anything prohibited by, or otherwise contravening any of the preceding Bye-laws, Numbers 1 to 14 respectively, shall be deemed to commit an offence against the same, and is, under the said Acts liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding Five Pounds.

18. The land to which these Bye-laws apply is specified in the Schedule hereto.

19. A plan showing the boundaries of the land can be inspected at the Royal Engineer's Office, Canterbury.

20. Copies of these Bye-laws can be obtained, at the price of One Shilling for each copy, at the Royal Engineer's Office, Canterbury, by any person who desires to obtain the same.

Dated this 2nd day of June, One thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

On behalf of His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department.

SCHEDULE.

---

The War Department land to which the foregoing Bye-laws apply is situated in the Borough of Canterbury and Parish of Fordwich, in the County of Kent. It lies between Sturry Road (Canterbury Barracks) and St. Martin's Hill. The precise boundaries are defined by Boundary Stones on the ground.
