

Upstream Space: A Galaxy of Capability

An Audit of Upstream Space Capability in The Oxfordshire-Cambridgeshire-MK-Herts Corridor; M3 Corridor & Solent; Greater East Midlands; Scotland; Wales; and Northern Ireland.

A Science and Innovation Audit Report sponsored by the Department for Business, Energy & Industrial Strategy

Annex D: Advisory Board Members

The Advisory Board to the Upstream Space Science and Innovation Audit has provided the Partner Board and Lead authors with with feedback and directional steer relating to the project and its content, and have made suggestions as to the future of the report to ensure its ongoing relevance and usefulness to the space sector and community.

The advisory board comprises senior leaders from the Space Sector from across the geographical regions covered by the report.

Upstream Space SIA Advisory Board

Chair: Catherine Mealing-Jones, UK Space Agency

Andy Stroomer, Airbus DS

Christopher Mutlow, Science & Technologies Facilities Council

Martin Barstow, University of Leicester

Craig Clark, Clyde Space

Ian Barham, Buckinghamshire & Thames Valley LEP

Robert Hill, Northern Ireland Space Office

Sue Littlemore, Enterprise M3 LEP

Maria Kalama, Innovate UK