

ANNEX A – LIST OF CONTROLLED GOODS FOR USE FOR MERCHANDISE IN BAGGAGE

[Please note that this is indicative only and a full list of controlled goods will be published before Regulations 39A(1) and 39B(1) of the Customs (Import Duty) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018, are commenced]

This list is subject to review and traders should check back for any updates

1. Aflatoxin
2. Agricultural machinery (used) unless cleaned so as to remove all soil and other debris.
3. Ammonium Nitrate
4. Animal pathogens and rabies virus
5. Animal products including animal carcasses
6. Animals, birds and other livestock
7. Anti-personnel mines
8. Asbestos
9. Bees and honey
10. Birds
11. Bushmeat
12. Cat and dog fur
13. Carcinogenic substances and goods containing these substances
14. Chlorofluorocarbons (CFCs) and other ozone depleting substances
15. Citizen's Band Radio
16. Conservation controls (on endangered species)
17. Controlled drugs
18. Cordless telephones designed for use on frequencies of not more than 853 MHz with the exception of importation under an authority issued by Ofcom and cordless telephones conforming with technical specification MPT 1322
19. Counterfeit currency notes as defined in the Forgery and Counterfeiting Act 1981.
20. Counterfeit, pirated and patent infringing goods
21. Cream and related products
22. Dairy Products
23. Diamond trading
24. Dissostichus ssp (Patagonian toothfish/Antarctic toothfish)
25. Drugs precursor chemicals
26. Eggs (birds and other)
27. Embryos
28. Endangered species
29. Explosives
30. Firearms
31. Fish and fish products
32. Flick knives and gravity knives
33. Flours and meal of animal origin
34. Frogs legs
35. Fruit and vegetables that require a Certificate of Conformity
36. Goods bearing false indications of origin
37. Goods infringing a trade mark or copyright
38. Government guarantee - articles bearing devices implying or tending to imply any government sanction or guarantee.
39. Hair and wool etc. - certain animal hair and wool specified in the Anthrax Prevention Order 1971, except under the Anthrax Prevention Order 1971 (Exemptions) Regulations 1982.
40. Hay and straw
41. High Risk Feed and Food Products that are listed as such on the Food Standards Agency website

42. Honey
43. Hops and hop products
44. Illegal Unreported and Unregulated (IUU) Fishing Regulations
45. Imitation Firearms
46. Indecent or obscene goods
47. Insects
48. Leghold trap furs
49. Livestock
50. Lottery material - tickets, advertisements and other material relating to foreign lotteries.
51. Meat and meat products
52. Milk and milk products
53. Molluscs
54. Nuclear materials
55. Offensive weapons
56. Organic produce
57. Ova (animal only)
58. Ozone depleting substances and hydrofluorocarbons
59. Parts and derivatives of endangered species
60. Pathogens (animal only)
61. Pests
62. Plants
63. Poultry
64. Prison-made goods
65. Protected coins as defined in the Forgery and Counterfeiting Act 1981.
66. Protein (animal processed)
67. Pyrotechnic articles, including fireworks
68. Rabies susceptible mammals
69. Rabies virus - in any form, except under licence from the appropriate agricultural department.
70. Radiotelephonic transmitters
71. Realistic Imitation Firearms
72. Rough diamonds
73. Seal products
74. Semen (animal only)
75. Shellfish
76. Soil (excluding peat)
77. Stamps - fictitious postage stamps denoting current rates of postage and dies, plates, instruments and materials for making such stamps
78. Straw
79. Timber that requires a Forest Law Enforcement Governance and Trade (FLEGT) licence
80. Torture Equipment
81. Toxic chemicals and precursors
82. Videosenders
83. Whale or other cetacean products
84. Wood
85. Wooden packaging, pallets and timber used to protect or restrain cargo