

Identifying your partners in recovery - exercise template

No.	The scenario	Who could your partner(s) be?	Issues to consider?	Next step(s) / identify action
1	Example: The local residents have asked for someone to arrange activities for the kids to take their minds off recent events	• Local Council neighbourhood teams • Existing charitable groups • Community groups • Social services [Note: be as specific as possible re names of groups etc.]	• Is this partner already a member of the LRF? • Is this an existing relationship or do you need to make contact with a representative? • Do you have their contact details? • If not, how will you identify the relevant contact and establish a relationship? • How will you involve this partner in recovery planning	Identify local contacts for charitable and community groups and ensure they have the opportunity to feed in to recovery planning
2	You want to arrange hand massages for local residents who are meeting weekly at a community centre

Recovery Partner Exercise – Part 2 of 4

No.	The scenario	Who could your partner(s) be?	Issues to consider?	Next step(s) / identify action
3	You are keen to get an update on flood defence work
4	You want to arrange for displaced residents, sheltering in a leisure centre, to have somewhere to charge their mobile phone
5	One of your local residents has been given a warning about time off from work due to dealing with the emergency and has asked you to find someone who can advise them on their rights
6	You have a pile of sympathy cards and other tributes left at the scene of the incident and now collected in your office. You are keen to do something with them.

Recovery Partner Exercise – Part 2 of 4

No.	The scenario	Who could your partner(s) be?	Issues to consider?	Next step(s) / identify action
7	You want to talk to someone about complaints of an increase in anti-social behaviour in your local area
8	The local residents have asked for someone to arrange activities for the kids to take their minds off recent events
9	A resident in council housing asks for an update about repair work on their damaged bedrooms
10	It has been suggested by community leaders that an exhibition of photographs and art work related to the incident is arranged

Recovery Partner Exercise – Part 2 of 4

No.	The scenario	Who could your partner(s) be?	Issues to consider?	Next step(s) / identify action
11	A local printing business has asked for help to get back on their feet after recent events
12	You have been asked to find out if the drinking water is now safe
13	There is a requirement to arrange a multi-faith memorial service
14	You have been asked to find out whether there are any funds that could help an elderly couple who are struggling financially
15	A local family ask you about where they can get help for their son who they feel is drinking too much alcohol after the emergency

Recovery Partner Exercise – Part 2 of 4

No.	The scenario	Who could your partner(s) be?	Issues to consider?	Next step(s) / identify action
16	A group of Polish residents have complained that they do not understand the information they are receiving
17	There are a number of stray dogs requiring homes			