Statement on behalf of the person you look after

The person you look after needs to know if you are claiming Carer’s Allowance as this may affect some of their benefits.

There are 3 statements in this section. One of them must be signed. The questions will help you decide who needs to sign.

Can the person you look after sign a statement?

No ☐ If the person you look after is unable to sign Statement 1 because of a health condition, a disability, or because they are under 16, someone who acts for them can sign on their behalf. Please go to Statement 2 on page 10.

Notes for the person being looked after

If you get a severe disability premium with your income-based Jobseeker’s Allowance, Income Support, income-related Employment and Support Allowance or Housing Benefit, you may no longer get that premium if we pay Carer’s Allowance to your carer.

If your Pension Credit includes an extra amount for severe disability, you may no longer get that extra amount if we pay Carer’s Allowance to your carer.

For more information about this, contact the office that deals with your benefit or entitlement.

This could also affect any reduction in Council Tax you may be entitled to. To find out more about it, please contact the Local Authority.

If we pay Carer’s Allowance to your carer, your Personal Independence Payment, Disability Living Allowance, Attendance Allowance, Constant Attendance Allowance or Armed Forces Independence Payment will not be affected.

We normally pay your money into an account.
Many banks and building societies will let you collect your money at the post office.
We will tell you when we will make the first payment and how much it will be for. We will tell you if the amount we pay into the account is going to change.

Finding out how much we have paid into the account
You can check your payments on account statements. The statements may show your National Insurance (NI) number next to any payments we have made. If you think a payment is wrong, get in touch with the office that pays you straight away.

If we pay you too much money
We have the right to take back any money we pay that you are not entitled to. This may be because of the way the system works for payments into an account.
For example, you may give us some information, which means you are entitled to less money. Sometimes we may not be able to change the amount we have already paid you. This means we will have paid you money that you are not entitled to.

We will contact you before we take back any money.

What to do now
- Tell us about the account you want to use on the next page. By giving us your account details you:
  - agree that we will pay you into an account, and
  - understand what we have told you above, in the section If we pay you too much money
- if you are going to open an account, please tell us your account details as soon as you get them
- if you do not have an account, please contact us and we will give you more information

Fill in the rest of this form. You do not have to wait until you have opened an account or contacted us.
About the account you want to use

- You can use an account in your name, or a joint account.
- You can use someone else’s account if:
  - the terms and conditions of their account allow this, and
  - they agree to let you use their account, and
  - you are sure they will use your money in the way you tell them.
- You can use a credit union account. You must tell us the credit union’s account details. Your credit union will be able to help you with this.
- If you are an appointee or a legal representative acting on behalf of the customer, the account should be in your name only.

Please tell us your account details below.
It is very important you fill in all the boxes correctly, including the building society roll or reference number, if you have one. If you tell us the wrong account details your payment may be delayed or you may lose money.

You can find the account details on your chequebook or bank statements. If you do not know the account details, ask the bank or building society.

Name of the account holder
Please write the name of the account holder exactly as it is shown on the chequebook or statement.
