Entry or leave to remain requirements

This page tells you how to check an applicant meets the entry or leave to remain requirements under the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) category of the points-based system.

Before you consider an application you must check:

- the application is valid
- the applicant's passport or travel document is genuine
- the applicant's immigration history (this includes relevant internal systems and previous case notes)
- there are no general grounds for refusal
- the application and biometric information are registered and verified

You must do verification checks if you think any of the supporting documents an applicant has submitted are not genuine.

Requirements for a grant of leave

The applicant must:

- score 40 points made up of:
 - 30 points for having a valid certificate of sponsorship
 - 10 points by meeting the maintenance requirement
- not be refused under general grounds for refusal, and for:
 - leave to enter they must have a valid entry clearance, unless they are a non-visa national seeking entry in the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) - Creative and Sporting category
 - leave to remain they must be extending
 - switching from one of the specified immigration categories

If the applicant is under 18 years of age, the:

- application must be supported by the applicant's parents, legal guardian, or by just one parent if that parent has sole legal responsibility for the child
- applicant's parents, legal guardian, or just one parent if that parent has sole responsibility for the child, must confirm they consent to the arrangements for the applicant's travel to the UK, and reception and care in the UK

An applicant in any Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) sub-category will be able to extend their leave up to the maximum time in that sub-category. They will need to satisfy the Immigration Rules in force at the time of their extension applications and this could be different to the Immigration Rules in force when they first applied for their entry clearance. However, where a charity worker applies to extend their leave for the purpose of the same employment, is not seeking to change sponsor, and their initial visa was applied for before 19 November 2015, they will be assessed against the Immigration Rules which were in force at 18 November 2015.

When assigning the certificate of sponsorship for the applicant's extended leave, the sponsor will therefore have guaranteed that the charity worker:

- will be continuing to undertake the voluntary fieldwork that they were sponsored to do during their initial period of leave and which continues to directly relate to the purpose of their charity
- will not be paid except reasonable expenses outlined in section 44 of the National Minimum Wage Act
- will not be filling a permanent position
- will comply with the conditions of their permission to stay and leave the UK when it expires

Genuineness tests

On 1 October 2013, the Immigration Rules changed to tackle abuse on all Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) routes. Genuine applicants are not affected by these changes.

These tests, however, do not apply to applicants under the Seasonal Workers pilot scheme.

When applying for entry clearance, leave to enter or leave to remain, you must be satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the applicant:

- genuinely intends to undertake the role described on the certificate of sponsorship (CoS)
- is capable of undertaking the role described on the CoS
- will not undertake employment in the UK other than permitted by the entry clearance, leave to enter or leave to remain, should it be granted

To assess this, you may request:

- additional information and evidence, and refuse the application if the information or evidence is not provided (you must receive any documents requested at the address given in the request within 28 working days of the date it is sent)
- the applicant attends an interview, and refuse the application if they fail to comply with such request without giving a reasonable explanation

To make the above assessment, you may take into account the applicant's:

- knowledge of the role
- relevant experience of the skills needed to do the role
- knowledge of the sponsor in the UK
- explanation of how they were recruited
- any other relevant information

You will not need most applicants to undertake these tests. You should ask them to do so only after you have assessed whether the application can be refused with the information already available and when:

- you have concerns individual sponsors are assigning unusually large numbers of CoS for the same type of role
- there are reasonable grounds to suspect the applicant will not be working in the role described on the CoS
- the job description on the CoS is unusual for the sub-category the applicant is applying under
- intelligence suggests applicants are linked to:
 - extremism
 - terrorism
 - trafficking

Switching into Tier 5 (Temporary Worker)

Applicants cannot normally switch into the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) category, the only exceptions are:

- visitors (excluding visitors for permitted paid engagements, marriage or civil partnerships or transit) who entered the UK undertaking permitted activities in the sports or creative sectors on or after 28 April 2015 who:
 - are applying to switch into the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) - Creative and Sporting sub-category
 - hold a valid certificate of sponsorship (CoS) that was assigned before they came to the UK
- overseas government employees (previously granted leave to enter under paragraphs 160-162 and 164-165 of the old Immigration Rules) who are applying to switch into the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) International Agreement sub-category - paragraphs 160 -162 of the Immigration Rules are now in appendix F
- work permit holders who:
 - are applying to switch into the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) - International Agreement sub-category
 - hold a CoS which shows they are being sponsored as an overseas government employee in the International Agreement sub-category, and will be continuing in employment with the same organisation
- work permit holders who:
 - are applying to switch into the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) - Government Authorised Exchange sub-category
 - were previously issued with a work permit for the purpose of employment as a sponsored researcher
 - have been granted a CoS to continue their employment
- students (paragraphs 57 – 62 of the Immigration Rules), students re-sitting an examination (69A – 69F), student nurse (63-67), student union sabbatical officers (87A-87F), people writing up a thesis, postgraduate doctors and dentists – all of which can be found in appendix F of the Immigration Rules, or Tier 4 (General) migrants (245ZT – 245ZY) can apply to switch into the Tier 5

(Temporary Worker) - Government Authorised Exchange sub-category, provided they:

- have lawfully obtained a UK bachelors, masters degree, post graduate certificate in education (PGCE) or post graduate diploma in education (PGDE)
- intend to pursue a career overseas at the end of the period of work experience or training
- are being sponsored to undertake postgraduate professional training or work experience required to obtain a professional qualification or registration in the same professional field as their qualification described above are being sponsored to undertake an internship for up to 12 months which is directly related to the qualification described above

Applicants cannot switch between the different sub-categories of Tier 5 (Temporary Worker). They can apply for extensions in the same Tier 5 sub-category, however, if they have not exceeded the maximum grant of leave allowed in that category.

Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) - Creative and Sporting: dual purpose visits

Definition of dual purpose visit

This is when an entertainer comes to the UK to:

- perform at a permit free festival
- take employment under the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) - Creative and Sporting sub-category

Dual purpose visits: switching

Entertainers who come to the UK for a dual purpose may enter as standard visitors. They can then apply to the Home Office to switch into the Tier 5 (Temporary Worker) - Creative and Sporting sub-category providing:

- they have a valid certificate of sponsorship (CoS) issued before they sought entry to the UK
- the permit free festival(s) take place before the Tier 5 employment

If the entertainer wants to switch, they must meet the above requirements and the Tier 5 requirements. If they do, you must grant leave to remain for the period specified by the sponsor on the CoS plus 14 days, or 12 months, whichever is shorter.

If they then intend to do more permit free festival appearances, they may do so as supplementary employment.

Dual purpose visits: entry under Tier 5

Entertainers coming for a dual purpose can also be granted on entry under Tier 5 if they meet the requirements above, providing their sponsor agrees to extend the CoS to cover the periods the performer is appearing at permit free festivals.

As an alternative, they can get entry clearance for a period of up to 12 months. They may then undertake festival appearances as supplementary employment.

Tier 5: certificate of sponsorship

This page tells caseworkers how to check if a Tier 5 applicant's certificate of sponsorship (CoS) is valid.

Checking the validity of the CoS

A valid CoS must:

- have been issued by a licensed sponsor who must be 'A-rated', unless it is an extension application to continue working for the same employer as in their last grant of leave
- have a reference number which links to a CoS checking service entry that names the applicant as the migrant
- confirm the sponsor is sponsoring the migrant in the Tier 5 category they have applied for
- confirm the relevant information as required by paragraph 111 of appendix A of the Immigration Rules
- show the same details as in the applicant's passport
- have been assigned no more than 3 months before the date of the application
- have a start date no more than 3 months after the date of the application
- not have been used for a previous application, if that application was approved or refused (but not rejected or withdrawn)
- not have been withdrawn or cancelled by the sponsor or by the Home Office since it was assigned

Tier 5: certificate of sponsorship checking system

When you check the CoS, you must:

- find it on the CoS checking system
- check the case type given on CID matches the type of CoS issued - you can find this on the top of the CoS.
- record it as 'used' in all approval and refusal cases
- not mark it as 'used' if you are rejecting, withdrawing or voiding the application, because the decision has not been made and they could use it again

Check the current status of the CoS

If the status of CoS on the checking system is:

- assigned, you may continue to assess the application
- suspended, you must:
 - not decide the case
 - keep it on hold

- contact the sponsor licensing unit (SLU) to find out if they will be re-instating the sponsor or if it will be revoked and if the sponsor's licence is revoked, you must refuse the application
- withdrawn, you must refuse the application if the sponsor does not issue another CoS because it is no longer valid
- used, you must refuse the application if the sponsor does not issue another CoS because it is no longer valid

Tier 5: searching the certificate of sponsorship checking system

You can access the CoS checking system using your user name and password. To access the search function click 'CoS check'. The CoS checker times out every 30 minutes, so you may need to log in again after this time.

You can search the system for the CoS using the either:

- CoS number
- applicant details
- sponsor details

The more information you provide, the narrower the search will be.

Searching using applicant's details

If you select this option you can search by:

- passport or travel document number
- family name
- given name
- nationality
- date of birth
- gender

Searching using sponsor details

If you select this option you can search by:

- sponsor licence number
- sponsor name
- sponsor's address
- sponsor's postcode

Tier 5 (Temporary worker): certificate of sponsorship requirements

This page tells you about the requirements a migrant must meet to be issued a valid certificate of sponsorship (CoS) by a sponsor in a Tier 5 sub-category.

Creative and Sporting

This category is for applicants in the creative and sporting sector who are entering the UK for short-term contracts or engagements.

Applicants must get entry clearance before they come to the UK, unless they are a non-visa national seeking entry for a period of less than 3 months.

Sports people

When a sponsor issues a CoS, they guarantee:

- the applicant is internationally established at the highest level in their sport
- their employment will make a significant contribution to the development and operation of that particular sport in the UK
- (for coaches) they are suitably qualified to do the job

Governing body endorsement

To issue a CoS, the sponsor must get an endorsement for the migrant from the governing body of the appropriate sport. The endorsement must confirm:

- the player or coach is internationally established at the highest level, and/or
- they will make a significant contribution to the development of their sport at the highest level in the UK
- the post could not be filled by a suitable settled worker

Confirmation that an endorsement has been obtained must be shown on the CoS and applicants must also provide the original letter issued by the governing body containing the endorsement as part of their application for leave or entry clearance.

Sports loans

A sportsperson with leave under the creative and sporting sub-category may be temporarily loaned to another sports club if:

- their sponsor is a sports club
- they are only sponsored as a player
- player loans are specifically permitted by the relevant sports governing body

- the player's sponsor has made arrangements with the loan club to allow them to meet their sponsor duties
- the player will return to play for the sponsor at the end of the loan

Creative workers

When a sponsor issues a CoS, they guarantee the applicant:

- is seeking entry to the UK to work or perform in the creative sector
- is not intending to base themselves in business in the UK
- poses no threat to the resident labour force
- will comply with the conditions of their permission to stay and leave the UK when it expires

To issue a CoS for migrants to perform or work in dance, theatre, film, television, or as a fashion model, sponsors must follow the requirements in the appropriate creative code of practice.

The sponsor must indicate on the CoS how they have considered the resident labour market by:

- ticking the relevant box on the CoS, and either:
 - providing details of how the resident labour market was considered
 - by any other acceptable way described in the creative codes of practice, such as stating the performer is internationally established

Group certificates of sponsorship

Sponsors can issue a group CoS for a performer and their entourage. An entourage can include people whose work is directly related to the employment of an entertainer, cultural artist, sportsperson or a dramatic production. Members of an entourage must have proven technical or other specialist skills.

Multiple engagements or performances – certificates of sponsorship

A creative worker may need to perform or work at a number of venues. If they have a single sponsor, for example an agent, and there are no more than 14 calendar days between each engagement, the sponsor can issue a single CoS to cover the whole period.

If, however, they have multiple sponsors, for example individual venues, producers or promoters, each sponsor can issue a CoS to cover their own show. The periods of work stated on the CoS must not overlap.

Charity Workers

This category is for those wanting to undertake unpaid voluntary fieldwork which contributes directly to the achievement or advancement of the sponsor's charitable purpose in the UK, for a maximum period of 12 months.

'Voluntary fieldwork' is defined as activities which would not normally be offered at a waged or salaried rate, and which contribute directly to the achievement or advancement of the sponsor's charitable purpose. It does not include work in support of the sponsor's charitable purpose including, for example, routine back office administrative roles, retail or other sales roles, fund-raising roles and roles involved in the maintenance of the sponsor's offices and other assets.

This category cannot be used to temporarily fill a position which is required on a permanent basis.

When a sponsor issues a CoS, they guarantee the applicant:

- will be undertaking voluntary fieldwork which contributes directly to the achievement or advancement of the sponsor's charitable purpose
- will not receive any form of payment or remuneration, including benefits in kind except reasonable expenses outlined in section 44 of the National Minimum Wage Act
- will not be filling a permanent position, including on a temporary basis
- will comply with the conditions of their permission to stay, and leave the UK when it expires

There is now a 'cooling off period' which prevents Tier 5 Charity Worker visa holders from returning to the UK, via these immigration routes for 12 months after their visa expires.

Religious Workers

This category is for applicants coming to work temporarily in the UK for a maximum of 24 months as:

- religious workers undertaking supporting activities, without actively preaching to the community
- visiting religious workers who:
 - are employed overseas doing the same work as they are seeking to come to do in the UK (although the exact detail of their duties in the UK may differ)
 - their employment is ongoing, and the time spent in the UK is consistent with a break from their employment
- members of religious orders, for example monastic communities of monks, nuns or similar religious communities, which involves a permanent commitment

When a sponsor issues a CoS, they guarantee:

- they accept the responsibilities of sponsorship for the applicant

- they will support the applicant through funds and/or accommodation that are sufficient for them to maintain themselves for the duration of the CoS
- the applicant is qualified to do the job in question
- the applicant will only work at the location(s), specified on the CoS, except when working under the supplementary employment provisions
- the applicant will not displace or deny an employment opportunity to a suitably qualified member of the resident labour force
- the applicant will comply with the conditions of their permission to stay and will leave the UK when it expires

The CoS must:

- outline the duties of the migrant
- detail any payments they will receive, and:
 - provide an explanation of how the sponsor has met the resident labour market test requirements
 - justify that the role the migrant will be doing is supernumerary and they will not be filling a vacant position that could otherwise be filled by a settled worker
 - explain that the role the migrant will be doing involves living mainly within and being a member of a religious order, which is a lineage of communities or of people who live in some way set apart from society in line with their specific religious devotion, for example, an order of nuns or monks

There is now a 'cooling off period' which prevents

Government Authorised Exchange

This category is for applicants coming to the UK for a maximum period of 12 or 24 months for approved exchange schemes that aim to share knowledge, experience and best practice.

This category cannot be used to fill job vacancies or bring unskilled labour to the UK.

GAE sponsor

Individual employers and organisations are not allowed to sponsor migrants in this category, even if they are licensed as sponsors under other tiers or categories of Tier 5 (Temporary worker).

A Tier 5 (GAE) sponsor must be an overarching body that manages the exchange scheme and has the support of a UK government department.

When a sponsor issues a CoS, they must state on it the applicant:

- is seeking entry to the UK to work or train temporarily here through an approved exchange scheme listed in appendix N of the Immigration Rules
- will work or train at or above the skill level described below

- will work or train in a role that complies with all relevant UK or EU legislation
- will not fill a vacancy in the UK
- meets the requirements of the individual exchange scheme

Skill level

Any work applicants do on an exchange scheme must be skilled. Skilled work is defined as being equivalent to National or Scottish vocational qualification (N/SVQ) level 3 or above. The only exception to this is when migrants are coming to the UK through a scheme set up as part of the European Union (EU) Lifelong Learning Programme, when they may do vocational education and training at a lower skill level.

Seasonal Workers

This subcategory is for migrants coming to the UK as seasonal workers in the edible horticulture sector through an approved scheme operator. This is a pilot scheme that will run between March 2019 and December 2020.

The 'edible horticulture sector' means those growing:

- protected vegetables – those grown in glasshouse systems
- field vegetables – those grown outdoors, including vegetables, herbs, leafy salads and potatoes
- soft fruit – those grown outdoors or under cover (for example, in glasshouses or a polytunnel), such as strawberries, raspberries, blackcurrants, blueberries and all ribes and rubus species
- top fruit (orchard fruit) – trees that bear fruit, such as apples, plums, cherries, and apricots
- vine and bines – both twining or climbing flexible stems of certain plants – for example, hops is a bine, and grapes is a vine
- mushrooms – typically covers Agaricus bisporus species but can also include more exotic species; typically grown indoors

'Seasonal work' means employment which fluctuates or is restricted according to the season or time of the year.

Only 2 approved scheme operators have been endorsed by DEFRA for this pilot. The approved scheme operators, Concordia (UK) Ltd and Pro-Force Limited, are listed in Appendix U to the Immigration Rules.

This pilot is subject to an annual quota of 2,500, set by the Home Office, and divided between the 2 scheme operators.

Applicants can come to the UK for a maximum period of 6 months' employment in the UK within any 12-month period under the scheme.

In assigning a CoS to a migrant who will take part in the Seasonal Workers scheme, the sponsor guarantees that the migrant:

- is at least 18 years old
- will not establish a business in the UK
- will only take employment in a seasonal job permitted by this scheme, and with an employer in the horticultural sector that has been assigned by them
- will comply with the conditions of their entry clearance and will leave the UK when it expires

International agreement

This category is for migrants coming to the UK under contract to provide a service covered under international law, including:

- the General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS) and similar agreements between the UK or European Union (EU) and another country and/or countries
- employees of overseas governments and international organisations
- private servants in diplomatic households

The maximum period allowed in this category is 24 months, except for those providing a service under contract as set out in the General Agreement on Trade In Services (GATS) and other similar trade agreements who may only be granted up to a maximum of 6 months in any 12 month period. Employees of overseas governments and international organisations and private servants in diplomatic households who may apply to extend their stay for 24 months at a time up to a total of 5 or 6 years depending on when they entered the UK.

GATS or other international agreements

When a sponsor issues a CoS to migrants under GATS or other similar trade agreement, they guarantee the applicant is either:

- a contractual service supplier who is employed by a company based outside the European Union (EU) that has a contract to supply services to someone in the UK as set out in the GATS or a similar trade agreement
- an independent professional who is self-employed, with no commercial presence inside the EU and has a contract to supply services to someone in the UK as set out in the EU - CARIFORUM economic partnership agreement or similar trade agreement

Contractual service supplier

If the applicant is a contractual service supplier:

- the employer must be based outside the EU in a country or territory which is a signatory to the trade agreement under which they are supplying services and the applicant must be a national of that country
- they must have been an employee of the company for at least 12 months
- they must have a degree or equivalent level qualification unless they are:

- supplying fashion model services, chef de cuisine services or entertainment services other than audiovisual services under the EU - CARIFORUM economic partnership agreement
- supplying advertising and translation services
- they must have specific professional qualifications to provide some services in the UK if this is required by relevant legislation, regulations or is a sector requirement
- they must have 3 years professional experience in the sector in which they are supplying services unless they are supplying chef de cuisine services under the EU – CARIFORUM economic partnership agreement, in which case, they must have at least 6 years relevant experience at the level of chef de cuisine and have an advanced technical qualification

Independent professional

If the applicant is an independent professional, they must:

- be a national of that country and their business must be established on the territory of a country outside the EEA that has signed that agreement and they must be a national of that country
- have a university degree or technical qualification which proves they have knowledge of a similar level to a degree
- have specific professional qualifications to provide some services in the UK if required by relevant legislation, regulations or is a sector requirement
- have 6 years professional experience in the sector in which they are supplying services

Employees of overseas governments and international organisations

When a sponsor issues a CoS to employees of overseas governments and international organisations, they guarantee the applicant:

- is under a contract of employment with the overseas government or international organisation
- will not take up any job for the sponsor, other than the one for which the certificate of sponsorship was issued
- will not try to avoid immigration controls by changing to a different category of worker within the international agreements category after entering the UK

Private servants in diplomatic households

When a sponsor issues a CoS to private servants in diplomatic households, they guarantee the applicant:

- is aged 18 years old or over
- will be employed by and as a private servant in the household of either:

- a member of staff of a diplomatic or consular mission who has diplomatic privileges and immunity as defined by the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations
- an official employed by an international organisation with certain privileges and immunities under UK or international law
- intends to work full-time in domestic employment
- will not take up any other form of job for the sponsor other than as a private servant in the specified household
- is not related to the sponsor or the sponsor's spouse, either by blood or by marriage - this includes but is not limited to: the spouse or unmarried partner, child, parent, grandparent or sibling of either the sponsor or the sponsor's spouse
- will leave the UK when their permission to stay has expired

Applicants must provide written evidence of the terms and conditions of their employment in the UK in the form set out in appendix 7 of the Immigration Rules. This must be signed by the applicant and their employer, who must be a diplomat or an official employed by an international organisation. It must confirm that the applicant will be paid at least the national minimum wage. In addition the employer must provide a declaration that the work the applicant will do will not be within the meaning of paragraph 57 of the National Minimum Wage Regulations 2015.

Applicants who spend a continuous period of 5 years in this category are eligible to apply for indefinite leave to remain (settlement).

Applicants may change employer, but if they do so, the alternative employment must be as a domestic worker in a private household and for whichever is the shorter period of: 6 months or the period left of their leave.

Compliance with UK employment laws: National minimum wage

Official – sensitive: start of section

The information on this page has been removed as it is restricted for internal Home Office use.

Official – sensitive: end of section

Private servants in diplomatic households should be paid at least the NMW.

Employers of private servants in diplomatic households must provide a statement confirming that the work carried out in the UK does not meet the terms of paragraph 57 of the National Minimum Wage Regulations 2015. This section provides an exemption from the NMW for those living as part of the family.

All private servants in diplomatic households must hold a contract using the template provided in appendix 7. This contract was revised in April 2015 and must be completed in full for all applications for leave to enter and leave to remain.

You must check that the salary arrangements meet the requirements of the National Minimum Wage Regulations. These rates are amended, usually annually, so you must make sure that you are using the correct rates. There is a calculator at GOV.UK, that can be used to check whether salaries meet the relevant rates. You must make sure that salaries quoted in monthly (or other) time periods are prorated to a weekly sum. The calculation for this would be to take a monthly sum, multiply it by 12, and divide by 52.

Please note that the only amount that may be offset against the NMW is an accommodation offset. The amount is specified in related link GOV.UK - National minimum wage: accommodation. Allowances for items such as food, travel, phone calls, and so on, cannot be offset against the NMW entitlement.

Where you are not satisfied that the NMW entitlement is met, the application should be refused.

Tier 5 (Temporary Worker): indefinite leave to remain (settlement) requirements

This page tells you about indefinite leave to remain (settlement) in the Tier 5 (International agreement) category for people working as private servants in diplomatic households.

The only Tier 5 migrants eligible for settlement are those in the Tier 5 (International agreement) category who work as private servants in diplomatic households and who were last granted entry clearance before 6 April 2012.

Before you consider an application in the Tier 5 (International agreement) category for people who work as private servants in diplomatic households, you must check the:

- application is valid
- applicant's passport or travel document is genuine
- applicant's immigration history on internal systems and previous case notes
- application has no general grounds for refusal
- application and biometric information are registered and verified

For more information, see the following links:

- Specified application forms and procedures
- Passports and travel documents
- Internal system checks – leave to remain
- Adverse immigration history
- General grounds for refusal
- Biometric information
- Points-based system – evidential flexibility

If you have any doubts whether the applicant's supporting documents are genuine you must do verification checks.

If the applicant previously applied under the Tier 5 (International agreement) category as a private servant in a diplomatic household and was last granted entry clearance before 6 April 2012, they can apply for settlement when they have been in the UK for a continuous period of 5 years in that category.

Requirements for indefinite leave to remain (settlement)

You must grant indefinite leave to remain if:

- the applicant meets the requirements of paragraph 245ZS of the Immigration Rules
- none of the general grounds for refusal in paragraphs 320 to 324 of the Immigration Rules apply
- the applicant has spent a continuous period of 5 years in the UK lawfully with leave in the Tier 5 (International agreement) category, working as a private servant in a diplomatic household
- the applicant has sufficient knowledge of the English language and about life in the UK, with reference to appendix KoLL (knowledge of language and life) of the Immigration Rules – this is unless the applicant is either:
 - under the age of 18
 - aged 65 or over at the time the application is made
- the applicant provides a letter from the employer which gives the reason for and the length of absences from employment, including periods of annual leave:
 - where the absence was due to a serious or compelling reason, the applicant must provide a personal letter which includes full details of the reason for the absences
 - it must also include all original supporting documents about those reasons – for example medical certificates, birth or death certificates, and the reasons which led to the absence from the UK

The applicant must not be in breach of immigration laws, unless either:

- the application is made within 14 days of the applicant's leave expiring and the Secretary of State considers there is a good reason beyond the control of the applicant or their representative, provided in or with the application, why the application could not be made in time, the overstaying will be disregarded
- the application is made following the refusal of a previous application for leave which was made in-time or to which the exception outlined here applied; and within 14 days of:
 - the refusal of the previous application for leave
 - the expiry of any leave which has been extended by section 3C of the Immigration Act 1971
 - the expiry of the time limit for making an in-time application for administrative review or appeal (where applicable)
 - any administrative review or appeal being concluded, withdrawn or abandoned or lapsing

The threshold for what constitutes 'good reason' is high and will depend on the individual circumstances of the case, but, for example, may include delays resulting from unexpected or unforeseeable circumstances such as the following:

- serious illness which meant that the applicant or their representative were unable to submit the application in time (where supported by appropriate medical documentation)
- travel or postal delays which meant that the applicant or their representative were unable to submit the application in time
- inability to provide necessary documents: this would only apply to exceptional or unavoidable circumstances beyond their control, such as the Home Office being at fault in the loss of, or delay in returning, travel documents, or delay in obtaining replacement documents following loss as a result of theft, fire or flood (where supported by evidence of the date of loss and the date replacement documents were sought)
