Statement of truth process for professional agents

If you're a solicitor or another person licensed to provide probate services, applying for a grant using a 'statement of truth' we can send your IHT421 form directly to the Probate Registry. If you would like us to do this, please tick this box

Notes

There are different procedures for applying for a grant of probate depending on who you are and where you apply for the grant.

If you're a solicitor or another person licensed to provide probate services

If you're not asking us to send this form directly to the Probate Registry, please enter your name and full postal address in the box above.

If you're filling in this form without the help of a solicitor or another person licensed to provide probate services

The action you take depends where you're taking out the grant:

- in England and Wales, leave the box above blank - send this form with your form IHT400, 'Inheritance Tax account' to HMRC Trusts and Estates Inheritance Tax (we'll then send it to the Probate Registry where you're sending your probate application form)
- in Northern Ireland, write your own name and address in the box above
- in Scotland, do not fill in this form - complete form C1 instead

Inheritance Tax reference if known

Name of Probate Registry where you're sending the application

Leave this box blank if you're a solicitor or another person licensed to provide probate services and have not asked us to send this form directly to the Probate Registry or you are applying for a grant in Northern Ireland.

Your reference (if applicable) and name of contact

Your phone number - in case we need to contact you

About this form

Fill in this form if you're applying for a grant of representation in England, Wales or Northern Ireland.

If you're in Scotland, fill in form C1 to apply for a grant of confirmation instead.

Give details of the assets that became the property of the personal representatives. This will be the same property for which you're applying for a grant of representation.

If you need help

Before filling in this form, please read the guidance notes 'Applying for a grant' in the IHT400, 'Notes'. For more information, go to:
