

Investigation Number	Decision	Summary of Reasons for Decision	Date of Decision
112	No inquiry	The Secretary of State has concluded that the combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in these cases, the Iraq Fatality Investigation (IFI) Report and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings – satisfies any Article 2 ECHR obligation which might arise.	05 April 2019
135	No inquiry	1. The Secretary of State has concluded that the combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in these cases and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings – satisfies any Article 2 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. The possibility that an inquiry could answer key questions pertaining to the death of this individual is so low that it does not justify the substantial financial and human costs which a further inquiry would likely involve.	05 April 2019
138	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
142	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
143	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
157	No inquiry	1. The Secretary of State has concluded that the combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in these cases and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings – satisfies any Article 2 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. The possibility that an inquiry could answer key questions pertaining to the death of this individual is so low that it does not justify the substantial financial and human costs which a further inquiry would involve.	05 April 2019
270	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019
270.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019
277	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
278	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
278.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019

279	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
281	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
281.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019
284	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
285	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
286	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
287	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
289	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
290	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
291	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
292	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
293	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019
294.01	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
295	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
296	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019

297	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
298	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
299	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
300	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
303.01	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. There is no evidence to attribute the deceased's death to actions by UK Forces.	05 April 2019
308	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
309	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
310	No inquiry	1. This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR as none of the exceptional bases for establishing jurisdiction are satisfied in this case. 2. The results of the IHAT investigation demonstrate that no offence was committed; the deceased died as a result of a road accident.	05 April 2019
311	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
313	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
314	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
315	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
316	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019

317	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
318	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
319	No inquiry	No credible breach of the deceased's rights under Article 2 ECHR. The IHAT investigation identified concerns about the veracity of the supporting evidence provided by the claimant.	05 April 2019
321	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
322	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
323	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
324	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
325	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
327	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
329	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR as none of the exceptional bases for establishing extra-territorial jurisdiction are satisfied in this case.	05 April 2019
330	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019
331	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019
332	No inquiry	1. This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR as none of the exceptional bases for establishing jurisdiction are satisfied in this case. 2. The results of the IHAT investigation demonstrate that no offence was committed; the deceased died as a result of a road traffic accident.	05 April 2019
333	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
333.01	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. There is no evidence to attribute the deceased's death to actions by UK Forces.	05 April 2019

334	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
335	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
336	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
336.01	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
337	No inquiry	No credible breach of the deceased's rights under Article 2 ECHR. The IHAT investigation identified concerns about the veracity of the supporting evidence provided by the claimant.	05 April 2019
338	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
339	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
340	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
341	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
342	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
344	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
345	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
346	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
348	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019

349	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
350	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
350.01	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
351	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
352	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
353	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
354	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
354.01	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
355	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
356	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
357	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
364	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
365	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
366	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable and proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on this incident. 3. On the available evidence, UK Forces acted in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement.	05 April 2019
368	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019

370	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
371	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
372	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
373	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
374	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
375	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
376	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
378	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
379	No inquiry	1. This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR as none of the exceptional bases for establishing jurisdiction are satisfied in this case. 2. The results of the IHAT investigation demonstrate that no offence was committed; the deceased died as a result of a road traffic accident.	05 April 2019
380	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
381	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
382	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019

564.01	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
606	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
607	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
608	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
610	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
611	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
612	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
613	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
614	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
615	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
616	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
617	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019

619.01	No inquiry	1. The Secretary of State has concluded that the combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in these cases and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings – satisfies any Article 2 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. The possibility that an inquiry could answer key questions pertaining to the death of this individual is so low that it does not justify the substantial financial and human costs which a further inquiry would likely involve.	05 April 2019
620	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
621	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
623	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
624	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019
625	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
626	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1030	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1031	No inquiry	1. This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR as none of the exceptional bases for establishing jurisdiction are satisfied in this case. 2. The results of the IHAT investigation demonstrate that no offence was committed; the deceased died as a result of a road traffic collision and was not unlawfully killed by UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1032	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1033	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019

1034	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1035	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1036	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1036	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1037	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1038	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1039	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1040	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1040	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1041	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1042	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1043	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1044	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1045	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019

1046	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1047	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1048	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1049	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1050	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1051	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1052	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1053	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1054	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1055	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1056	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1057	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1058	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1059	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1060	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019

1061	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1062	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1063	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1064	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1065	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1066	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1067	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1068	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1069	No inquiry	1. The Secretary of State has concluded that the combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in these cases and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings – satisfies any Article 2 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. The possibility that an inquiry could answer key questions pertaining to the death of this individual is so low that it does not justify the substantial financial and human costs which a further inquiry would likely involve.	05 April 2019
1078	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1079	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1080	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR as none of the exceptional bases for establishing extra-territorial jurisdiction are satisfied in this case.	05 April 2019

1081	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1082	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1083	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1084	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1085	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1086	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1087	No inquiry	1. This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR as none of the exceptional bases for establishing jurisdiction are satisfied in this case. 2. The results of the IHAT investigation demonstrate that no offence was committed; the deceased died as a result of a road traffic accident.	05 April 2019
1229.01	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1348	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1349	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1352	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1353	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1354	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1355	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019

1356	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1357	No inquiry	1. The Secretary of State has concluded that the combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in these cases and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings – satisfies any Article 2 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. The possibility that an inquiry could answer key questions pertaining to the death of this individual is so low that it does not justify the substantial financial and human costs which a further inquiry would likely involve.	05 April 2019
1385	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1387	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1389	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1389.01	No inquiry	1. The Secretary of State has concluded that the combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in these cases and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings – satisfies any Article 2 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. The possibility that an inquiry could answer key questions pertaining to the death of this individual is so low that it does not justify the substantial financial and human costs which a further inquiry would likely involve.	05 April 2019
1390	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1391	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1392	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1393	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019

1394	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1395	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1396	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1397	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1398	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1399	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1400	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1401	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1402	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1403	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1404	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1405	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1406	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1407	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1408	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019

1409	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1410	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1411	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1412	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1413	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1414	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1415	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1416	No inquiry	1. The Secretary of State has concluded that the combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in these cases and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings – satisfies any Article 2 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. The possibility that an inquiry could answer key questions pertaining to the death of this individual is so low that it does not justify the substantial financial and human costs which a further inquiry would likely involve.	05 April 2019
1417	No inquiry	1. The evidence demonstrates that UK Forces shot and killed the deceased in self-defence and/or in accordance with the Rules of Engagement. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1417.02	No inquiry	1. The Secretary of State has concluded that the combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in these cases and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings – satisfies any Article 2 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. The possibility that an inquiry could answer key questions pertaining to the death of this individual is so low that it does not justify the substantial financial and human costs which a further inquiry would likely involve.	05 April 2019
1418	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019

1419	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1420	No inquiry	This death does not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR. The deceased's death is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1515	No inquiry	1. The Secretary of State has concluded that the combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in these cases and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings – satisfies any Article 2 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. The possibility that an inquiry could answer key questions pertaining to the death of this individual is so low that it does not justify the substantial financial and human costs which a further inquiry would likely involve.	05 April 2019
1516	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1517	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1518	No inquiry	1. It is not possible to ascertain whether the deceased was killed by UK Forces. 2. There are no other reasonable or proportionate lines of inquiry that could shed further light on the incident.	05 April 2019
1522	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 2 ECHR.	05 April 2019