

Investigation Number	Decision	Summary of Reasons for Decision	Date of Decision
3	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
4	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
4.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
5.03	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
6	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
6.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
7	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
10.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
10.04	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
10.05	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
10.07	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
10.08	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
12	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
12.01	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019
12.02	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019
12.04	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
13.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
13.02	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
14	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
18	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
18.09	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
20.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
21	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
29	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
29.01	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
29.02	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
29.04	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
31.02	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
32.02	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
33	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
37.02	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
37.07	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
38.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
38.02	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

38.05	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
39.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
40	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
40.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
40.03	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
46.02	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
46.03	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
53.01	No inquiry		05 April 2019
53.02	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
57.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
58	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
59	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
67	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
71	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
74	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
75.01	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
75.02	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
76.03	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
77	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
78	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
79	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

81	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
98	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
100	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
104.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
104.02	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
115.01	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
117.03	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
152	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
166	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
168	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
169	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019

170	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
171	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
172	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
173	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
174	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
181.03	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019
189	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019
190	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
192.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
213	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
229.02	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
238.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
242	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
246	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
255	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

264	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
266	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019
268	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019
271	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
271.01	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
272	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
274	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
277	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
277.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
282.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
286.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
290.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
293.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
294	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
294.02	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
294.03	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
299.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
310.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
325.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
329.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
335.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
347.02	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
355.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
385	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019
386	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
387	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
388.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
389	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
391	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
391.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
394	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

395	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
400	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019
402	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
411	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
412	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
413	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
414	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
419	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
421	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
422	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
428	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
430	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
439	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

442	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
445	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
446	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
449	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
450	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
453	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
455	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
456	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
457	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
458	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
459.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
460	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
461	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
464.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
465	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
470.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

472	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
473	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
480	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
481	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
485	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
490	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
490.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
493	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
502	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
510	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019
514	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
520	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
522	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
526	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
527.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
529	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019

530	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
530.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
532	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
533	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
544	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
547	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
548	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
551	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
555	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
560	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
568	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
569	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
573	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
576	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
576.01	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
578	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
581	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
582	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
585	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
600	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019

603	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
605	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019
608.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
610.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
647	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
648	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
649	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
654	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
658	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
662.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
663	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
667	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
674	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
677	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
680	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
683	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019

686	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
687	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
694	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
695	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
696	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
700	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
701	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019

702	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
703	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
705	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
709.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
710	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
711	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
713	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
713.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
714	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
716	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019

721	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
724	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
724.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
729	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
732	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
734	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
737	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
741	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
747	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
748	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
749	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
752	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019

753	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
754	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
759	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
760	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
761	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
767	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
769	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
775	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019

776	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
778	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
778.02	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
781	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
787	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
797	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
798	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
800	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
802	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
803	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019

815	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
817	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
818	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
820	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
820.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
821	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
823	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
824	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
826	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
827	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
828	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
829	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
830	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
832	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
835	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
838	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
841	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
846	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

857	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
860	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
861	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
862	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
863.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
867	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
871	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
873	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
876	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
879	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
881	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
882	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
885	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
887	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
891	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
896	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
899	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
901	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
903	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
904	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
910	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
911	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
915	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
919	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
925	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
929	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
934	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
935	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

936	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
937	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
938	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
941	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
942	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
946	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
952	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
953.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
960	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
963	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
964	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
969	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
972	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
975	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
979	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
981	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
986	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
988	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

990	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
992	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
993	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
998	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1000	No inquiry	There is no evidence to support the allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR	05 April 2019
1004	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1008	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1009	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1012	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1015	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1018	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1020	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019

1021	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1022	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1023	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1024	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1054.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1088	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1090	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1091	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1093	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1094	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1095	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1097	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019

1097.01	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1098	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1101	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1102	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1104	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1106	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1108	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1111	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1115	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1116	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019

1121	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1121.02	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1130	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1130.01	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1139	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1145	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1146	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1147	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1150	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1153	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1154	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1162	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1166	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1166.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1168	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1169	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1172	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1179	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

1182	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1185	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1188	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1190	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1193	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1195	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1201	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1204	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1206	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1208	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1209	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1211	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1214	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1215	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1216	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1220	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1221	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1224	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1227	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1231	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019

1233	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1235	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1237	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1238	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1239	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1243	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1245	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1247	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1248	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1249	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1253	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1254	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1257	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1258	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1260	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1264	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

1265	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1276	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1279	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1287	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1288	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1289	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1292	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1293	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1301	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1305	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1307	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1310	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

1318	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1320	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1322	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1323	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1332	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1332.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1334	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1335	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1337	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1350	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1350.02	No inquiry	These alleged incidents do not fall within the UK's jurisdiction under Article 1 ECHR as non of the exceptional bases for establishing extra-territorial jurisdiction are satisfied in this case.	05 April 2019
1360	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1363	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1366	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1389.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1390.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1423	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1423.01	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019

1424	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1425	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1427	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1428	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1429	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1430	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1431	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1433	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1440	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1449	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1451	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1454	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1466	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1469	No inquiry	The allegation is not attributable to UK Forces.	05 April 2019
1474	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1490	No inquiry	1.The combination of the IHAT/SPLI criminal investigation in this case and the oversight provided by the High Court – including the availability of judicial review and civil proceedings in respect of any alleged ill-treatment – satisfies any Article 3 ECHR obligation which might arise. 2. This case does not highlight issues that are of such seriousness or ongoing importance that it is necessary to conduct further inquiry in order to learn lessons from it. 3. The circumstances of this case are such that the Secretary of State considers that the costs of further inquiry outweigh the potential benefits. 4.Taking these matters into account, the Secretary of State has decided an inquisitorial inquiry will not be established in this case.	05 April 2019
1514	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1519	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1521	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019
1526	No inquiry	There is no credible allegation of a violation of Article 3 ECHR.	05 April 2019