Short biography:

How did you find out about the Investing in Women Code?

- By submitting this form our organisation pledges to adopt these commitments and to work towards a culture of inclusion and to advance access to capital for female entrepreneurs.
- By submitting this form we agree to provide HM Treasury, or the relevant industry body designated by HM Treasury, a commonly agreed set of data and for that data to be used in an annual report published by HM Treasury. HM Treasury may engage a third body to write the report.
- By submitting this form we understand that we may not communicate externally that we have signed the Investing in Women Code until it has formally been announced and/or published by HM Treasury.
