

Privacy statement on bed rails consultation

You can read the MHRA Privacy Notice to find out in general terms the types of personal data we process and why; as well as information about your rights and how to raise concerns.

You can participate in this feedback exercise anonymously but if you choose to provide your name and email address, please also tick the box if you would like us to add you to our mailing list to offer you future opportunities to hear about or get involved in our work.

We will process any other personal data you provide in the responses for the purpose of informing the development of our policy, guidance or other regulatory work in the subject area of the request for views.

We rely on GDPR Article 6(1)(e) as our legal basis for processing your personal data. This allows us to process personal data when this is necessary for the performance of our public tasks in our capacity as a regulator.

We don't intend to share your personal data with any third party and will handle any specific requests from a third party for us to share your personal data with them in accordance with data protection laws.

We will retain responses until our work on the subject matter is complete. You have the right to request access to the personal data that we hold about you and also to object to us processing your personal data.

If you have any questions, concerns or wish to exercise any of your rights, please contact our Data Protection Officer dataprotection@mhra.gov.uk.
