Important – please read

The standards for driving and alcohol misuse or dependency have been reviewed and updated.

Before you re-apply for your driving licence please ensure that you can meet the following standards:

If there is a history of alcohol misuse, for Group 1 car and/or motorcycle driving, you are required to show controlled drinking at the recommended low risk limits for at least 6 months. For Group 2 bus and/or lorry driving you are required to show controlled drinking at the recommended low risk limits for at least 12 months.

If there is a history of alcohol dependency for Group 1 car and/or motorcycle driving, you are required to show abstinence from alcohol for 12 months. For Group 2 bus and/or lorry driving you are required to show abstinence from alcohol for 3 years. Abstinence means not taking any alcohol. You must continue to abstain from alcohol if you wish to hold a driving licence.

Recommended low risk limits

The UK Chief Medical Officers’ guideline for both men and women is that to keep health risks from alcohol to a low level it is safest not to drink more than 14 units a week on a regular basis. Find out more <https://www.nhs.uk/conditions/Alcohol-misuse/Pages/Introduction.aspx>

In addition you must also meet all other medical standards for safe driving. Your doctor should be able to advise you whether you meet the licensing standards. To view the current standards go to www.gov.uk/dvla/fitnesstodrive

More information about alcohol and its affect on health can be found at: <https://www.nhs.uk/conditions/Alcohol-misuse/Pages/Introduction.aspx>

Important information about fitness to drive

- As part of the investigation into your fitness to drive, we (DVLA) may require you to have a medical examination and/or some form of practical assessment. If we do, the individuals involved in these will need your background medical details to carry out an appropriate assessment.
- These individuals may include doctors, orthoptists at eye clinics or paramedical staff at a driving assessment centre. We will only release information relevant to the medical assessment of your fitness.
- Also, where the circumstances of your case appear to suggest the need for this, the relevant medical information may need to be considered by one or more of the members of the Secretary of State’s Honorary Medical Advisory Panels. The membership of these Panels conforms strictly to the principle of confidentiality.

All data held by DVLA is used for internal evaluation of the quality of our services.

This section must NOT be altered in any way.
