

February 2013

Sport England – Board Member Reappointments

Hugh Robertson, Minister for Sport and Tourism has reappointed Mich Stevenson and James Stewart as members of Sport England for a third term of six months. Their term of appointment will run from 16 April 2013 to 15 October 2013.

Mich Stevenson

In 1992 Mich formed the Lace Market Heritage Trust to enable and encourage the regeneration of the historic Lace Market area of Nottingham, which and was appointed its inaugural Chairman. In 1993 The Museum of Law Trust Company was formed to oversee the creation of the Galleries of Justice, working towards its recognition as the National Museum of Law. He was appointed Chairman. In 1998 Mich was awarded an OBE in the New Year's Honours List for "Services to the Galleries of Justice, Nottingham". In 2001 Mich was awarded "Enterprise Midlander of the Year" for East and West Midlands, by Carlton Television and has since been appointed Chairman of the Carlton Television Midlander of the Year and has also been appointed a Director of the Regional Advisory Council for Carlton Television.

Mich served as Chairman of Nottingham Development Enterprise for five and a half years before retiring in 2001. He was also the Chairman of Profile Nottingham from which he retired in July 2001. In December 2004, Mich became Deputy Lieutenant of Nottinghamshire.

James Stewart

James is the Chairman of KPMG's Global Infrastructure Practice. He was appointed in May 2012. Prior to this he was CEO of Infrastructure UK (IUK) and lead at Partnerships UK for 10 years. He is also a Director of the Northern Ireland Strategic Investment Board, a member of the Joint Venture Board of Partnerships for Schools and a Non-Executive Director on Sport England.

Previously James was Head of Newcourt Capital's project finance team in London. Prior to joining Newcourt Capital, James was Managing Director of Project Finance and the Global Head of Infrastructure and Environment with Société Générale (SG) in London.

Background

1. These reappointments have been made in accordance with the OCPA Code of Practice. Appointments and reappointments are made on merit and political activity plays no part in the appointments process. Mich and James have declared that he has not undertaken any politically activity during the last 5 years.