The Armed Forces Covenant

An Enduring Covenant Between

The People of the United Kingdom

Her Majesty's Government

– and –

All those who serve or have served in the Armed Forces of the Crown

And their Families

The first duty of Government is the defence of the realm. Our Armed Forces fulfil that responsibility on behalf of the Government, sacrificing some civilian freedoms, facing danger and, sometimes, suffering serious injury or death as a result of their duty. Families also play a vital role in supporting the operational effectiveness of our Armed Forces. In return, the whole nation has a moral obligation to the members of the Naval Service, the Army and the Royal Air Force, together with their families. They deserve our respect and support, and fair treatment.

Those who serve in the Armed Forces, whether Regular or Reserve, those who have served in the past, and their families, should face no disadvantage compared to other citizens in the provision of public and commercial services. Special consideration is appropriate in some cases, especially for those who have given most such as the injured and the bereaved.

This obligation involves the whole of society: it includes voluntary and charitable bodies, private organisations, and the actions of individuals in supporting the Armed Forces. Recognising those who have performed military duty unites the country and demonstrates the value of their contribution. This has no greater expression than in upholding this Covenant.

Section 1: Principles Of The Armed Forces Covenant

1.1 We Devon & Cornwall Police will endeavour in our business dealings to uphold the key principles of the Armed Forces Covenant, which are:

- no member of the Armed Forces Community should face disadvantage in the provision of public and commercial services compared to any other citizen
- in some circumstances special treatment may be appropriate especially for the injured or bereaved.

Section 2: Demonstrating our Commitment

2.1 Devon & Cornwall Police recognises the value serving personnel, reservists, veterans and military families bring to our business. We will seek to uphold the principles of the Armed Forces Covenant, by:

- promoting the fact that we are an armed forces-friendly organisation;
 - promoting our work, activities and events through a range of communication channels, including our website, social media channels and engagement with the media
 - publishing our Covenant pledge and displaying the Armed Forces Covenant logo on our corporate website
- seeking to support the employment of veterans young and old:
 - by participating in military careers fairs and working with and advertising vacancies through the Career Transition Partnership (CTP) to ensure employment opportunities are made available to Veterans
 - welcoming applications from Veterans who meet the criteria in the job specification
 - recognising military skills, competencies and qualifications in our recruitment and selection process
- striving to support the employment of Service spouses and partners;
 - working with and advertising vacancies with Forces Families Jobs, as well as advertising widely in the Armed Forces Community
 - welcoming applications from spouses / partners who meet the criteria in the job specification

- endeavouring to offer a degree of flexibility in granting leave for Service spouses and partners before, during and after a partner's deployment
- utilising current Devon and Cornwall Policing policies for compassionate and emergency leave to support service spouses and partners in the event of a bereavement or serious injury
- seeking to support our employees who choose to be members of the Reserve forces, including by accommodating their training and deployment where possible;
 - staff area actively encouraged to become Reservists
 - up to 2 weeks per year of paid leave is available to attend annual training camps
 - accommodation of Reserve training commitments wherever possible
 - fully supporting and accommodating mobilised deployment of Reservist employees wherever possible
- offering support to our local cadet units, either in our local community or in local schools, where possible;
 - seeking to support members of the cadet forces
 - accommodation of Cadet training commitments where possible
 - considering joint Police Cadet and Armed Forces Cadet events
- aiming to actively participate in Armed Forces Day;
 - by becoming an AFD Partner and:
 - in advance, promoting through the web, social media, membership and other networks
 - during; encouraging employees to take part in Reserve Forces Day, Uniform to work day and any Flag Raising Ceremonies; assisting with case studies and stories and working with the Wessex RFCA to get them to press
 - post; publishing stories on the web, social media, through our own membership and other networks as well as working with the RFCA Communications lead and the press

2.2 We will publicise these commitments through our literature and/or on our website, setting out how we will seek to honour them and inviting feedback from the Service community and our customers on how we are doing.
