

DRAFT SUBJECT TO ASSEMBLY APPROVAL

These bills have been prepared by the Office of the Legislative Counsel (OLC) in Northern Ireland at the request of the UK Government to support a successful conclusion to the ongoing political talks to restore the Executive.

These measures reflect the discussion to date and the deal published by the Secretary of State and the Tánaiste on the 9th January 2020.

These indicative measures would form the basis of legislation that the Executive would introduce to the Assembly.

Also attached are draft amendments to the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (as referenced in paragraph 5.25 of the deal).

DRAFT SUBJECT TO ASSEMBLY APPROVAL

1. Amendment of Northern Ireland Act 1998 to make provision about the Office of Identity and Cultural Expression and related provision [j2A]

TO

Amend the Northern Ireland Act 1998 to establish the Office of Identity and Culture; and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by being passed by the Northern Ireland Assembly and assented to by Her Majesty as follows:

Amendment of Northern Ireland Act 1998 to make provision about the Office of Identity and Cultural Expression and related provision [j2A]

1.—(1) In the Northern Ireland Act 1998 after Part 7 insert—

“PART 7A

5

THE OFFICE OF IDENTITY AND CULTURAL EXPRESSION

General principles

78A.—(1) A public authority must in exercising its functions have due regard to the principles set out in this section.

10

(2) Those principles are—

15

(a) the need to respect the freedom of all persons in Northern Ireland to choose, affirm, maintain and develop their national and cultural identity and to celebrate and express that identity in a manner which takes into account the sensitivities of those with different national or cultural identities and respects the rule of law;

20

(b) the need to encourage and promote reconciliation, tolerance and meaningful dialogue between those of different national and cultural identities in Northern Ireland with a view to promoting parity of esteem, mutual respect and understanding and co-operation.

The Office of Identity and Cultural Expression

The Office of Identity and Cultural Expression

78B.—(1) There shall be an office known as the Office of Identity and Cultural Expression.

5 (2) Schedule 9A applies in relation to the Office of Identity and Cultural Expression.

(3) In this Part “the Office” means the Office of Identity and Cultural Expression.

Aims and functions of the Office

10 78C.—(1) The aims of the Office are—

- (a) to promote cultural pluralism in Northern Ireland;
- (b) to promote social cohesion and reconciliation between those of different national and cultural identities;
- (c) to increase the capacity and resilience of people in Northern Ireland to address issues related to differences of national and cultural identity;
- (d) to support, and promote the celebration of, the cultural and linguistic heritage of all people living in Northern Ireland.

(2) In pursuing those aims the Office may in particular—

- (a) provide guidance to public authorities concerning their duty under section 78A;
- (b) monitor the compliance of public authorities with that duty;
- (c) report to the Assembly on compliance with that duty;
- (d) promote best practice in relation to compliance with that duty;
- (e) commission and publish research and reports in respect of cultural identities and traditions;
- (f) in response to a request from a Commissioner appointed under Part 7B or 7C in relation to a matter of particular concern, undertake research and make recommendations on that matter;
- (g) promote public awareness and educational programmes in relation to matters falling within the functions of the Office;
- (h) make grants to bodies which promote cultural pluralism and respect for diversity;
- (i) co-operate with other bodies having functions which involve the promotion of cultural pluralism and respect for diversity;
- (j) provide support services to the Commissioners appointed under Parts 7B and 7C.

“Public authority”

Interpretation: “public authority”

5 78D.—(1) In this Part “public authority” means any body or person listed in Schedule 3 to the Public Services Ombudsman Act (Northern Ireland) 2016.

10 (2) The First Minister and deputy First Minister acting jointly may by regulations provide—

15 (a) that a body or person not so listed is to be a public authority for the purposes of this Part (or any provisions of this Part specified in the regulations);

20 (b) that a body or person so listed is not to be a public authority for the purposes of this Part (or any provisions of this Part specified in the regulations).

25 (3) The power to make regulations under this section is exercisable by statutory rule for the purposes of the Statutory Rules (Northern Ireland) Order 1979.

30 (4) Regulations are not to be made under this section unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, the Assembly.

20 (5) Regulations under this section may include transitional or supplementary provisions.

Repeal

Repeal of Administration of Justice (Language) Act 1737

25 78E.—(1) The Administration of Justice (Language) Act (Ireland) 1737 is repealed.

30 (2) A court must, to the extent necessary in the interests of justice, ensure that appropriate arrangements are made to facilitate the use by a person in proceedings before the court of a language other than English.”.

30 (2) In the Northern Ireland Act 1998 after Schedule 9 insert—

“SCHEDULE 9A

DRAFT SUBJECT TO ASSEMBLY APPROVAL

Northern Ireland Act 1998 (Amendment No.2)

- (b) for best practice standards relating to the use of the Irish language in connection with the provision by public authorities of services to the public in Northern Ireland (see sections 78I to 78L).
- (3) Nothing in this Part affects the status of the English language.

5

The Irish Language Commissioner

The Irish Language Commissioner

78G.—(1) There shall be an officer known as the Irish Language Commissioner.

10

(2) The Irish Language Commissioner shall be appointed by the Ministers.

(3) Schedule 9B applies in relation to the Irish Language Commissioner.

(4) In this Part (and in that Schedule) “the Commissioner” means the Irish Language Commissioner.

Functions of the Commissioner

15

78H.—(1) The main function of the Commissioner is to protect and enhance the development of the use of the Irish language by public authorities in connection with the provision by those authorities of services to the public in Northern Ireland.

20

(2) The Commissioner must in particular—

- (a) prepare in accordance with section 78J best practice standards for the use of the Irish language by public authorities;
- (b) provide support to public authorities in connection with those standards;
- (c) monitor the performance of public authorities in meeting those standards;
- (d) investigate in accordance with section 78L complaints that a public authority has failed to have due regard to those standards.

25

(3) The support to be provided by the Commissioner under subsection (2)(b) includes (but is not limited to)—

30

- (a) the provision of advice and guidance;
- (b) the provision of training and awareness programmes.

(4) The Commissioner must comply with any directions (of a general or specific nature) given by the Ministers as to the exercise of the Commissioner’s functions.

35

(5) Sections 75 and 76 of this Act (equality of opportunity and good relations and non-discrimination) apply to the Commissioner in carrying out functions under this Chapter.

Best practice standards

Duty of public authority to have due regard to best practice standards

5 78I.—(1) A public authority must, in connection with the provision by it of services to the public in Northern Ireland, have due regard to the best practice standards which apply to the authority.

10 (2) A public authority must prepare and publish a plan setting out the steps it proposes to take to comply with subsection (1).

15 (3) A public authority may at any time, and must if the best practice standards which apply to the authority are amended or replaced under section 78K, prepare and publish a revised plan.

20 (4) Before preparing a plan or revised plan under this section a public authority must consult the Commissioner.

Setting of best practice standards

25 78J.—(1) The Commissioner must prepare and submit to the Ministers for approval a written set of standards of conduct (“best practice standards”) relating to the use of the Irish language in connection with the provision by public authorities of services to the public in Northern Ireland.

20 (2) In preparing best practice standards under subsection (1) the Commissioner must—

(a) have due regard to guidance given to the Commissioner by the Ministers; and

(b) undertake such consultations with public authorities and other persons and bodies as the Commissioner considers appropriate.

25 (3) The Ministers may approve (with or without modifications) best practice standards submitted under this section.

30 (4) Best practice standards must state the date or dates from which the standards are to be applicable.

(5) Best practice standards may make different provision for different public authorities or different classes or descriptions of public authorities.

(6) Best practice standards approved by the Ministers must be published by the Commissioner in such form as the Commissioner considers appropriate.

Review and revision of best practice standards [j6]

35 78K.—(1) The Commissioner must, not later than 5 years from the most recent publication of best practice standards under section 78J(6), review the operation of the standards.

(2) The Commissioner may—

(a) following a review under subsection (1), or

40 (b) at any other time if the Commissioner considers it necessary or desirable,

DRAFT SUBJECT TO ASSEMBLY APPROVAL

Northern Ireland Act 1998 (Amendment No.2)

5 prepare amendments to current best practice standards or prepare new best practice standards to replace current best practice standards.

(3) Subsections (2) to (6) of section 78J apply to any amendment or replacement of best practice standards prepared under this section as they apply to the initial standards prepared under subsection (1) of that section.

Complaints

10 78L.—(1) Where—

15 (a) a written complaint is made to the Commissioner by a person who claims to have been directly affected by a failure of a public authority to comply with section 78I,

(b) the complaint is made within the period of 3 months beginning with the day on which the complainant first knew of the matters alleged in the complaint, and

20 (c) the Commissioner is satisfied that the complainant has brought the matter complained of to the notice of the public authority concerned and that that authority has had a reasonable opportunity to consider it and to respond,

25 the Commissioner must either investigate that complaint under this section or send to the complainant a statement of the reasons for not doing so.

30 (2) Subject to subsection (3), the procedure for conducting an investigation under this section is to be such as the Commissioner considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case, and in particular an investigation may be conducted in private.

35 (3) Where the Commissioner proposes to carry out an investigation under this section, the Commissioner must—

(a) send notice in writing of that fact to—

(i) the public authority concerned; and

(ii) the complainant; and

(b) afford the public authority concerned an opportunity to comment on any allegations contained in the complaint.

35 (4) Where the Commissioner undertakes an investigation under this section, the Commissioner must send a report of the results of the investigation to—

(a) the public authority concerned, and

(b) the complainant.

40 (5) Where on completing an investigation under this section the Commissioner is satisfied that the public authority concerned has failed to comply with section 78I, the Commissioner—

(a) may include in the report under subsection (4) recommendations as to action to be taken by the public authority in order to remedy the failure or to avoid future failures; and

(b) shall lay the report before the Assembly.

PART 7B

THE IRISH LANGUAGE

Purpose of this Part

Purpose of this Part: official recognition of the status of the Irish language

78F.—(1) The purpose of this Part is to provide official recognition of the status of the Irish language in Northern Ireland which is additional to that provided by other statutory provisions such as—

- (a) section 28D of this Act;
 - (b) the North/South Co-operation (Implementation Bodies) (Northern Ireland) Order 1999; and
 - (c) the statutory provisions relating to Irish-medium education.
- (2) This Part provides that official recognition by making provision—
- (a) for the appointment and functions of an Irish Language Commissioner (see sections 78G and 78H);
 - (b) for best practice standards relating to the use of the Irish language in connection with the provision by public authorities of services to the public in Northern Ireland (see sections 78I to 78L).
- (3) Nothing in this Part affects the status of the English language.

The Irish Language Commissioner

The Irish Language Commissioner

78G.—(1) There shall be an officer known as the Irish Language Commissioner.

- (2) The Irish Language Commissioner shall be appointed by the Ministers.
- (3) Schedule 9B applies in relation to the Irish Language Commissioner.
- (4) In this Part “the Commissioner” means the Irish Language Commissioner.

Functions of the Commissioner

78H.—(1) The main function of the Commissioner is to protect and enhance the development of the use of the Irish language by public authorities in connection with the provision by those authorities of services to the public in Northern Ireland.

- (2) The Commissioner must in particular—
 - (a) prepare in accordance with section 78J best practice standards for the use of the Irish language by public authorities;
 - (b) provide support to public authorities in connection with those standards;
 - (c) monitor the performance of public authorities in meeting those standards;
 - (d) investigate in accordance with section 78L complaints that a public authority has failed to have due regard to those standards.

DRAFT SUBJECT TO ASSEMBLY APPROVAL

(3) The support to be provided by the Commissioner under subsection (2)(b) includes (but is not limited to)—

- (a) the provision of advice and guidance;
- (b) the provision of training and awareness programmes.

(4) The Commissioner must comply with any directions (of a general or specific nature) given by the Ministers as to the exercise of the Commissioner's functions.

(5) Sections 75 and 76 of this Act (equality of opportunity and good relations and non-discrimination) apply to the Commissioner in carrying out functions under this Part.

Best practice standards

Duty of public authority to have due regard to best practice standards

78I.—(1) A public authority must, in connection with the provision by it of services to the public in Northern Ireland, have due regard to the best practice standards which apply to the authority.

(2) A public authority must prepare and publish a plan setting out the steps it proposes to take to comply with subsection (1).

(3) A public authority may at any time, and must if the best practice standards which apply to the authority are amended or replaced under section 78K, prepare and publish a revised plan.

(4) Before preparing a plan or revised plan under this section a public authority must consult the Commissioner.

Setting of best practice standards

78J.—(1) The Commissioner must prepare and submit to the Ministers for approval a written set of standards of conduct ("best practice standards") relating to the use of the Irish language in connection with the provision by public authorities of services to the public in Northern Ireland.

(2) In preparing best practice standards under subsection (1) the Commissioner must—

- (a) have due regard to guidance given to the Commissioner by the Ministers; and
- (b) undertake such consultations with public authorities and other persons and bodies as the Commissioner considers appropriate.

(3) The Ministers may approve (with or without modifications) best practice standards submitted under this section.

(4) Best practice standards must state the date or dates from which the standards are to be applicable.

(5) Best practice standards may make different provision for different public authorities or different classes or descriptions of public authorities.

DRAFT SUBJECT TO ASSEMBLY APPROVAL

(6) Best practice standards approved by the Ministers must be published by the Commissioner in such form as the Commissioner considers appropriate.

Review and revision of best practice standards [j6]

78K.—(1) The Commissioner must, not later than 5 years from the most recent publication of best practice standards under section 78J(6), review the operation of the standards.

(2) The Commissioner may—

- (a) following a review under subsection (1), or
- (b) at any other time if the Commissioner considers it necessary or desirable, prepare amendments to current best practice standards or prepare new best practice standards to replace current best practice standards.

(3) Subsections (2) to (6) of section 78J apply to any amendment or replacement of best practice standards prepared under this section as they apply to the initial standards prepared under subsection (1) of that section.

Complaints

78L.—(1) Where—

- (a) a written complaint is made to the Commissioner by a person who claims to have been directly affected by a failure of a public authority to comply with section 78I,
- (b) the complaint is made within the period of 3 months beginning with the day on which the complainant first knew of the matters alleged in the complaint, and
- (c) the Commissioner is satisfied that the complainant has brought the matter complained of to the notice of the public authority concerned and that that authority has had a reasonable opportunity to consider it and to respond, the Commissioner must either investigate that complaint under this section or send to the complainant a statement of the reasons for not doing so.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the procedure for conducting an investigation under this section is to be such as the Commissioner considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case, and in particular an investigation may be conducted in private.

(3) Where the Commissioner proposes to carry out an investigation under this section, the Commissioner must—

- (a) send notice in writing of that fact to—
 - (i) the public authority concerned; and
 - (ii) the complainant; and
- (b) afford the public authority concerned an opportunity to comment on any allegations contained in the complaint.

(4) Where the Commissioner undertakes an investigation under this section, the Commissioner must send a report of the results of the investigation to—

- (a) the public authority concerned, and

DRAFT SUBJECT TO ASSEMBLY APPROVAL

(b) the complainant.

(5) Where on completing an investigation under this section the Commissioner is satisfied that the public authority concerned has failed to comply with section 78I, the Commissioner—

- (a) may include in the report under subsection (4) recommendations as to action to be taken by the public authority in order to remedy the failure or to avoid future failures; and
- (b) shall lay the report before the Assembly.

Interpretation: “public authority”

78M.—(1) In this Part “public authority” means any body or person listed in Schedule 3 to the Public Services Ombudsman Act (Northern Ireland) 2016.

(2) The Ministers may by regulations provide—

- (a) that a body or person not so listed is to be a public authority for the purposes of this Part (or any provisions of this Part specified in the regulations);
- (b) that a body or person so listed is not to be a public authority for the purposes of this Part (or any provisions of this Part specified in the regulations).

(3) The power to make regulations under this section is exercisable by statutory rule for the purposes of the Statutory Rules (Northern Ireland) Order 1979.

(4) Regulations are not to be made under this section unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, the Assembly.
