You are completing this form because there are allegations that the child(ren) listed in this form may have suffered or be at risk of suffering domestic abuse, violence/abuse.

“Domestic violence/abuse” means any incident of threatening behaviour, violence or abuse (psychological, physical, sexual, financial or emotional) between adults who are or have been intimate partners or family members regardless of gender or sexuality.

The Children Act 1989 defines the following terms as:

“Harm” means ill treatment or damage to health and development, including, for example, damage suffered from seeing or hearing the ill treatment of another.

“Development” means physical, intellectual, emotional, social or behavioural development.

“Health” means physical or mental health.

“Ill-treatment” includes sexual abuse and forms of ill-treatment which are not physical.

Section 5 - Steps or orders required to protect the safety and wellbeing

What steps or orders do you want the court to take or make to protect the safety of the child(ren) and/or yourself?

Non-molestation order: The court may decide to make a non-molestation order under Part IV of the Family Law Act 1996. A non-molestation order requires that the person against whom the order has been made may not be violent or threaten violence, harass, pester or annoy the person who applied for the order, by any means, including social media (text messages, Facebook etc.).

The different types of orders that can be applied for under section 8 of the Children Act 1989 are as follows:

Prohibited Steps: this prevents a parent from taking a particular action as set out in the order without the permission of the court. This also applies to actions by any other person named in the order.

Specific issue: this decides specific questions e.g. about education, medical treatment or a foreign holiday or visit where parents or those with parental responsibility cannot agree.

Please note that while court staff will help on procedural matters, they cannot offer any legal advice

Section 1

About You

If you do not wish your contact details to be made known to the respondent, leave the space on the form blank and complete Confidential contact details (form C8). You can get a copy of this form from any family court office or from our website at hmctsformfinder.justice.gov.uk It should be sent to the court at the same time as you submit this form.

Section 2 – Further Information

1. Incidents of domestic violence/abuse and their outcomes

The definitions of harm and domestic violence/abuse are set out on page one of the form

This section is to outline the nature and frequency of the abuse experienced by you or the child(ren) and any action that may have taken place as a consequence.

The first part asks what type of abuse that you or the child(ren) may have experienced.

The second part asks if you have any of the following court orders, when they were issued, how long they are for, and which court they were made in.

Non-molestation order – requires that the person against whom the order has been made may not be violent or threaten violence, harass, pester or annoy the person who applied for the order

Occupation order – sets out who can live in a property and can exclude a person totally from the property or prohibit a person from entering certain rooms within the property.

Forced Marriage Protection Order – can require that a person's passport is surrendered, prohibit intimidation and violence, order a person to reveal the whereabouts of a person and stop someone from being taken abroad for the purpose of being forced into marriage.

Restraining order – prohibits the convicted person from further conduct which causes harassment or will cause a fear of violence.

Other injunctive order – any other injunction you may have obtained against the person whom you are alleging harm.

If you have been granted any of the above orders please attach copies of the orders with the form.

2. Information about incidents

The table is intended to give a short description of what happened and relevant information. The following is a brief description of what is required in each column:

Approximate date/when/how long did the behaviour continue – this can be either specific/approximate dates of individual incidents, or a timeframe over which multiple incidents occurred.

Nature of behaviour/what happened – a brief description on the incidents, please note that you can describe the same type of behaviour that happened over a period of time in one entry.

Have you ever sought help? If so, from who?
– This could be the police, social services, your doctor, a medical professional, a voluntary sector worker, the Citizen's Advice Bureau or any agency you may have approached for help. It could also be a friend or family member.

Did they do anything? – What help did they give you? Were you referred to anyone else? Is there any ongoing contact with them?

Section 3 – Abduction

This section asks about any concerns you may have about a child being abducted from your care.

'Child abduction' is the wrongful removal of a child from any person having, or entitled to, lawful control of that child.

'International child abduction' is the wrongful removal or wrongful retention away from the country where the child usually lives.

If the child has a passport it is important that you fill in the section about who is in possession of the child's passport.

Section 4

Are there any other concerns you would like to raise regarding your Child(ren)?

This section is for any concerns not already raised in the form regarding the child's safety and wellbeing.

Section 5

Attending the Court

This section asks if you require any special measures put in place when you attend court. The court will try to supply you and your witnesses with a separate waiting area and the other measures listed. However, this is not always possible and can depend on the court facilities as to whether these measures are available.

Response to allegations of harm (page 9)

This section should only be filled in if the other party (the applicant) has served a completed form C1A and has sent it to the respondent.

If no form C1A is sent in with the application for an order the respondent themselves will need to complete the form C1A to be returned with form C7 Response to an application under the Children Act 1989.
