Sir,

I confirm that a grant of £7,500.00 was received by bank transfer to the London Wing account from the Mercer's Company on 19 July 2019. Grateful if you would formally advise and thank the Company.

Grateful also if you would advise the apportionment of the grant - I assume, as in previous years that a notional £5,000 will be allocated for staff and cadet training?

In a further update regarding the bank account the committee have opened a new bank account Metrobank and are trying to recover the funds from the old S C account. Unfortunately, the cheue books for the old S C account were handed over to Section 40 when he took on the role as Section 40

It would seem that Section 40 which has made funds recovery and transfer to the new account a prolonged process.

Now that we've located Section 40 - I note I'm putting a plan together to discuss with the committee.

It is absolutely fine with me. A number of cadets when going to study either transfer or become supernumerary on a unit. In London we encourage it. Section 40 should discuss with Section 40 current Section 40 to ensure they are content.

Do you know whereabouts Section 40 will be staying in London so I can look at a local squadron that would suit Section 40.

Section 40 has a Section 40 (which is ama ing) and wants to stay in the organisation.

Speaking with Section 40 yesterday Section 40 said Section 40 wants to stay on the units books in Section 40 but would like to be involved with London Wing if possible.

I said I would drop you a line to get your thoughts.

Section 40 is a very good Section 40 and I am sure would be useful addition to any unit.

Subject: L 'S W 'S

Good afternoon all

Earlier this week we received a visit from the Section 40 for London's New Year's Day Parade L to discuss potential cadet participation and/or support.

Background

As some may remember New Year's Day was a quiet day after the celebrations of the night before, with few if any shops or restaurants open and very little to entertain the public and entice the tourist to remain in London. However 5 years ago the City of Westminster started to hold a parade on New Year's Day, the first one held in 1991. It proved successful and has since grown in size with 20 of the London boroughs regularly supporting the event which is now televised. In recent years they estimate around 50k people line the streets to watch the parade and a further 55 million watch it on TV across 20 nations.

The parade starts at 12:00 from Berkeley Square and routes via Piccadilly Circus, the Mall, Trafalgar Square, Whitehall and finishes at around 15:00 near Parliament Square. The parade consists of around 10 floats – not in the same vein as the Lord Mayor Show but a float being a distinct group of people walking or a group of vehicles, such as classic and vintage cars and trucks. Music is a key theme with bands and musical acts coming from many countries in addition to the UK. As part of the parade each act has the opportunity to perform for a short period for judges and a prize for the best is awarded. There is certainly an intense competitive spirit between the acts representing the various London boroughs. More information on the event can be found on www.lnydp.com. I note I have been told that there will be two preview programmes shown on television prior to the L W 2020.

The Request

One of the major patrons for the event is Section 40, the Section 40 and is also the Section 40 and a key proponent of the uniformed youth groups across London. Both Section 40 and the Section 40, are keen to highlight those groups as part of the event, either through participation or by providing support to the event. That said both Section 40 and Section 40 are fully aware that the date is probably one of the more difficult to generate uniformed youth support – it is generally one of the few periods during the year when units close down for the festive break and time with their families. However because of the very high profile opportunity to join in this request is being passed on with full support.

- Participation Having checked out the web site you will have an idea of what types of acts participate, all of which pay their own way to participate and with a good dose of competitive spirit. I am aware that the C already participate supporting one of the London borough floats. It may be worth your units ascertaining from their London borough what their intentions for 2020 are.
- Support Although ample security will be in place it was felt that the interaction between the event and the watching public could be markedly improved and members of the uniformed youth groups along the route would provide that interaction, as well as boost the public understanding of the uniformed youth groups. All briefings would be provided as well as any appropriate. The event director felt that 50-100 would definitely achieve.

he programme that goes with the event is an 5 glossy and would include acknowledgements and the potential to include a recruiting drive, particularly for adult volunteers which many of our organisations do struggle with. All logistic costs will be met by the event team, including refreshments for both participants and support team.

I am fully aware that this is a huge ask for your organisations but I do feel that there is huge benefit from actively supporting this huge London event. ou are re uested to give this re uest active consideration and highlight the opportunity widley throughout your organisation in London it may generate individuals who wish to support this worthwhile event.

hank you for your time and if there are any uestions please do not hesitate to get back to me if I don t have the answer I know a man who does..

ery best wishes

I have been informed by the states team that despite numerous attempts, including by LaS no keys have been provided for the ir Cadet uilding on Wood Lane in agenham. s you are aware without access we are unable to conduct any maintenance activity including statutory and mandatory inspections and tests. hese are essential to ensure the safety of the building and therefore failure to complete in the re uired timescale would mean that we would be forced to close the building. I understand Section 40 has tried a number of times as well but to no avail.

Could I ask for support from both you and the Section 40 to ensure ekys are provided to this ssociation at the earliest opportunity.

He has discussed the transfer with his Section 40 who is content.

Are you okay with this? I know you are short of adult volunteers?

Good afternoon Section 40 and gentlemen

Section 40

close Section 40

I have been informed by Section 40 that he will have completed an audit of the trust within the next week or so and therefore it is timely to hold a trustees meeting both to hopefully sign off the accounts before they need to be reported to the Charity Commission but to also agree a revised investment policy and confirm a grants policy. Both of these can then be incorporated into a revised guidance to trustees and submitted to the Charity Commission at the same time.

I am also aware the Section 40 is eager for a trustees meeting at the earliest opportunity. Therefore could I ask for your availability for the period from 22 October onwards. While a day time meeting would be preferable I fully understand this might not be possible so early evening is possible. If agreeable we can host at Fulham House and dependent on timings we would provide refreshments.

As a start I am not available on the following dates

- 2 and 2 October.
- Evening 2 October
- 1000 1 00 0 October
- 1 November
- pm November
- am November
- 12 November

Once I have a suitable date and time I will confirm and confirm an agenda. In that subject if there are any specific issues which you would wish to raise please provide with your availability. I can then put the draft agenda before the Section 40 for approval. I will also provide notes of the last meeting for agreement at the next meeting.

Once again many apologies for the delay.

Kind regards

Sir,

Thank you.

L F will wait until midday on onday to see if we have received further payments and will then send out a chaser.

to date matches precisely what I have my side (I read your emails I promise). Please see attached v6 - updated at time of sending this email.

The numbers are sitting at 133, however with some 'holds' in place (and some persons asking for last minute extra places) I am flexing some discretion prior to making a final close of the guest list middle next week. I think we will be 130 on the night if I were a betting man.

Finally, the Mess Committee and I are working on a solution to purchase our own wine having discussed this at the Club with their events team yesterday. This will potentially save a good sum (even with paying corkage) and I am confident some of the wines will be better quality versions as a result. Again, I will update you and Out of scope early next week.

All other areas in-hand, however I would welcome any thoughts you have in terms of flowers / small gesture of thanks made publicly as per tradition that we should consider (Club Catering & Events Manager, Section 40, Club Chef / head of waiting staff?). In terms of 'entertainments' - we are unlikely to add that to the costs as Section 40 and I are handling with some favours called in etc.

Best Regards,
