

The Royal Courts of Justice remains open to the public, however some counters and court facilities have temporarily closed (14 April 2020). See below for more information.

Court of Appeal (Civil)

- Urgent work (applications and hearings) only; all hearings are being held remotely
- Counter closed, email contact available.

Court of Appeal (Criminal)

- Urgent work (applications and hearings) only.
- Counter closed, drop off and email contact available.

High Court

- High Court work is being conducted according to the High Court Contingency Plan.
- Civil hearings continue to be conducted remotely, where possible and as appropriate with reference to the Remote hearings protocol for civil hearings (see judiciary.uk).

Senior Courts Costs Office

- Hearings continue to be conducted remotely, where possible and as appropriate with reference to the Remote hearings protocol for civil hearings (see judiciary.uk).
- New filings on CE-File should be limited to applications with approaching deadlines, any documentation in support of hearings which have been listed and requests for final costs certificates
- Counter remains open.

Central London County Court, Mayors and City Court

- Hearings continue to be conducted remotely, where possible and as appropriate with reference to the Remote hearings protocol for civil hearings (see judiciary.uk).
- Counter appointments only, phone contact available.