11) The number of cases of suspected identity fraud/candidate impersonation for the car and bike practical test at Horsforth and Leeds practical test centre in 2009, 2010 and 2011

12) The number of cases of suspected identity fraud/candidate impersonation for the car and bike theory test at Horsforth theory test centre in 2009, 2010 and 2011. Please provide separate figures for each year

We hold information, in a central record, on the number of cases of suspected identity fraud/candidate impersonation from October 2009. You can find the number of cases of suspected identity fraud/candidate impersonation at the car and bike theory and practical tests at Horsforth and Leeds from October 2009 to 31 December 2011 below.

Calendar year	2009 (from October)	2010	2011
Cases of suspected identify fraud/candidate impersonation at the car theory test at Leeds	8	8	8
Cases of suspected identify fraud/candidate impersonation at the car practical test at Leeds	0	0	1
Cases of suspected identify fraud/candidate impersonation at the bike theory test at Leeds	0	0	0

Please note that:

- there were no cases of suspected identity fraud/candidate impersonation at the bike or car theory and practical tests at Horsforth between October 2009 to 31 December 2011
- the information provided above refers to the number of reports of suspected identity fraud/candidate impersonation and not the total number of tests discovered during the investigation where there was evidence that candidate impersonation may have taken place.

It is estimated that to extract and compile details of cases of identity fraud/candidate impersonation for the car and bike theory and practical tests at Leeds and Horsforth test centres before October 2009 would take in excess of 24 working hours. This information is exempt from release under section 12 (1) (cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit) of the FOIA. A full breakdown of this exemption can be found at Annex C.

The appropriate limit, as prescribed by the Freedom of Information and Data Protection (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations 2004, is £600 for Central Government and £450 for other public authorities, with staff costs calculated at a rate of £25 per hour. When calculating whether the appropriate limit is exceeded, authorities can take account of the costs of determining whether the information is held, locating and retrieving the information, and extracting the information from other documents. They cannot take account of the costs involved with considering whether information is exempt under the Act.
