Guidance Notes

If you are a line manager

Things to think about before the conversation:

- How to best articulate the goals for your area
- Are there opportunities to try something different to support continuous improvement?
- Are there any members of your team who could take on greater responsibility to help delivery the goals?
- What performance standards do you expect, how you will communicate these?

Everyone during the meeting

Prompts to have a great conversation:

- Allow everyone to contribute ideas
- Agree roles and responsibilities
- Discuss and agree what success will look like
- Share potential challenges, risks and constraints and discuss how to overcome them
- Agree timeframes for reviewing progress
- Be clear about who's doing what and when
