INTRODUCTION

1. This memo gives guidance on changes to SS benefits consequential to the introduction of parental bereavement leave (“PBL”) and parental bereavement pay (“PBP”). The changes are introduced by the Parental Bereavement Leave and Pay (Consequential Amendments to Subordinate Legislation) Regulations 2020 (SI 2020 No. 354). The changes come into effect on 6.4.201.

2. If a child dies on or after 6.4.20, there is a new statutory entitlement called PBL for bereaved parents who are employees to take up to 2 weeks’ leave from their job in

1 Parental Bereavement Leave and Pay (Consequential Amendments to Subordinate Legislation) Regulations 2020, reg 1

BACKGROUND
the 56 weeks following the death of the child. If more than one child dies, the employee is entitled to PBL in respect of each child. In addition, PBP is payable for 2 weeks.

Note: For this purpose, a child is a person under the age of 18. Also, references to a child include a child stillborn after 24 weeks of pregnancy.

UNIVERSAL CREDIT

Childcare cost – work condition

3. One of the conditions for an amount in respect of childcare costs to be included in an award of UC is the work condition. For the purposes of satisfying the work condition, a claimant who is receiving PBP is treated as in paid work.

Earnings

4. PBP has to be treated as employed earnings.

---

JOBSEEKER’S ALLOWANCE

Not in remunerative work

5. When someone is absent from work due to PBL, the DM should decide that they are not in remunerative work during such absence. Such people should also be included on the list at ADM R2390.

---

Earnings

6. Payments made to an employee who is on PBL will not be included as earnings.
EMPLOYMENT AND SUPPORT ALLOWANCE

7. Payments made to an employee who is on PBL will not be included as earnings¹.
