

Global Human Rights

Introduction

1. On 6 July 2020, the Foreign Secretary laid before Parliament the Global Human Rights Sanctions Regulations 2020 (S.I. 680/2020) (the Regulations). The Regulations are made under the Sanctions and Anti-Money Laundering Act 2018 (the Sanctions Act) and provide for the freezing of funds and economic resources of certain persons, entities or bodies responsible for or involved in serious violations of human rights.
2. The Foreign and Commonwealth Office have published the UK Sanctions List on GOV.UK. This list includes details of all sanctions enacted under the Sanctions Act. A link to the UK Sanctions List can be found below.
3. Following the publication of the UK Sanctions List, information on the Consolidated List has been updated.

Notice summary

4. 49 entries have been added to the Consolidated List and are now subject to an asset freeze.

What you must do

5. You must:
 - i. check whether you maintain any accounts or hold any funds or economic resources for the persons set out in the Annex to this Notice;

- ii. freeze such accounts, and other funds or economic resources and any funds which are owned or controlled by persons set out in the Annex to the Notice
 - iii. refrain from dealing with the funds or assets or making them available (directly or indirectly) to such persons unless licensed by the Office of Financial Sanctions Implementation (OFSI);
 - iv. report any findings to OFSI, together with any additional information that would facilitate compliance with the Regulations;
 - v. provide any information concerning the frozen assets of designated persons that OFSI may request. Information reported to OFSI may be passed on to other regulatory authorities or law enforcement.
6. Failure to comply with financial sanctions legislation or to seek to circumvent its provisions is a criminal offence.

OFSI staff are currently working remotely but are continuing to ensure there is minimal disruption to service. Until further notice, we continue to recommend you send any queries to the OFSI inbox with clear indications and explanations of urgency. Any queries normally made to the OFSI helpline, or sent by post, should instead be directed to the OFSI inbox. Please note that where we receive a high volume of queries, or if we experience significant staff absence, we may not be able to respond in line with our usual timescales.

Licence applications and compliance reports will continue to be assessed and you will still receive communication from us, including requests for information on individual cases. Urgent and humanitarian licence cases will continue to be prioritised.

These arrangements will be in place until further notice and we will provide an update once they come to an end.

12. Non-media enquiries about the sanctions measures themselves should be addressed to: sanctions@fco.gov.uk

13. Media enquiries about how financial sanctions are implemented in the UK should be addressed to the Treasury Press Office on 020 7270 5238.

14. Media enquiries about the sanctions measures themselves should be addressed to the Foreign and Commonwealth Office Press Office on 020 7008 3100.
