

Carer's Allowance

Claim form

Carer's Allowance gives financial help to people who cannot take up full-time paid work as they provide regular care to a disabled person.

The quickest and easiest way to claim Carer's Allowance is online. Check if you can get Carer's Allowance and make a claim at www.gov.uk/carers-allowance

We have many different ways we can communicate with you

Remember

If someone else also cares for the same person as you, only one of you can claim Carer's Allowance, or the carer's element of Universal Credit.

If you both meet the criteria, you must decide between you who will claim.

When you claim Carer's Allowance, the person you provide care for may stop getting:

- a severe disability premium paid with their benefits, if they get one
- an extra amount for severe disability paid with Pension Credit, if they get one
- reduced Council Tax, if their local council offers it

Department for Work &
Pensions

We will check the record of the person you provide care before making a decision on your claim. There is more information about how Carer's Allowance affects other benefits in the Notes and at www.gov.uk/carers-allowance

You must tell the person you are providing care for, or their legal representative, before you claim Carer's Allowance.

We pay Carer's Allowance into a bank account.

If you do not give us details of a bank account you can use, we cannot pay Carer's Allowance even if you are entitled to it.

We can pay your Carer's Allowance every:

- week (in advance) or
- 4 weeks (one week in advance and 3 weeks in arrears)

We normally pay it on a Monday.

How would you like to be paid?

Please tick one box.

Every week.

Every 4 weeks.

We will pay your money into an account.

Many banks and building societies will let you collect your money at the post office.

We will tell you when we will make the first payment and how much it will be for.

We will tell you if the amount we pay into the account is going to change.

Finding out how much we have paid into the account

You can check your payments on account statements. The statements may show your NI number next to any payments we have made. If you think a payment is wrong, get in touch with us straightaway.

If we pay you too much money

We have the right to take back any money we pay that you are not entitled to.

This may be because of the way the system works for payments into an account.

For example, you may give us some information, which means you are entitled to less money. Sometimes we may not be able to change the amount we have already paid you. This means we will have paid you money that you are not entitled to.

We will contact you before we take back any money.

What to do now

- Tell us about the account you want to use on the next page. By giving us your account details, you:
 - agree that we will pay you into an account, and
 - understand what we have told you above, in the section If we pay you too much money
- If you are going to open an account, tell us your account details as soon as you get them.
- If you do not have an account, please contact us and we will give you more information.
