Notice to traders 27/18

Poultrymeat import quota

Introduction

The quantities available for the next round of poultrymeat import quotas are detailed in Annex 1 attached.

The application period

For the subperiod 1 January 2019 to 31 March 2019, you may apply for import licences between 1 December 2018 and midnight on 7 December 2018.

It is your responsibility to ensure the application and all additional documentation is correct at the time of submission.

Note: We will reject any applications (including supporting documents), securities received after midnight on 7 December 2018 or proof of trade received after 5pm on 7 December 2018.

Proof of trade

If it is your first application of the quota year you must provide evidence to show that you imported or exported at least 50 tonnes of product covered by Annex I, part XX to Regulation (EC) No 1234/2007 during:

- the 12 month period immediately prior to the time of your application; and
- the 12 month period immediately prior to that.

Note: We will reject your application if there is not enough to qualify.

You must supply the original import document (C88) form or a copy certified as a 'true copy' of the original stamped by Customs. We will not accept photocopies of the Customs stamp or scanned versions of these documents.

We do not require endorsed C88 documents for electronic licence attributions.

Supporting documents

If it is your first application of the quota year you must send us a valid VAT certificate when submitting your application. If you are registered as part of a group you must provide a valid VAT certificate that lists each company within the group.

If you are applying under order numbers 09.4410, 09.4411 or 09.4420 your application must be accompanied by a supply contract specifying that the poultry supplies requested are available for delivery within the European Union during the quota period from the origin and for the quantity requested.

Licence applications

In box 8, the country of origin:

- you must put a cross in the 'No' box for order numbers 09.4067, 09.4068, 09.4069, 09.4070, 09.4412, 09.4421 and 09.4422 and a cross in the 'Yes' box for all other order numbers.

In box 20, special particulars:

- you must state the regulation number and order number that you are applying under.

Applications under all order numbers must be for a minimum of 10 tonnes.

Licence security

Applications under Commission Regulation (EC) Nos 533/2007, 536/2007 and 1384/2007 must be accompanied by a security of €20 per 100kgs.

Applications under Commission Regulation (EC) No 1385/2007 must be accompanied by a security of €50 per 100kgs.

In box 11, you should state:

- the amount of security expressed in the same unit of currency that your guarantee is lodged;
- the type of security, for example 'block guarantee', 'cash' or 'single transaction guarantee'; and
- the trader number of the block guarantee holder if you are using another trader's block guarantee.

If you are using another trader's block guarantee you must ensure that your cross reference details are set up before you send us your application.

Note: We will reject your application if the cross reference is not set up and you do not submit security in another format within the application period.

We will not accept any amendments to block guarantees after the application period has closed, including cross reference amendments.

Licence validity

Your licence will be valid for 150 days from the first day of the subperiod but not beyond the last day of the quota year.

Release of security

You must return your paper licences within 45 days of the expiry date or you will forfeit your security.

Security against the main electronic licence (excluding extracts) will be released automatically upon attribution of at least 95% of the licence quantity.

Transfer of rights

The rights of a licence may only be transferred to companies that have satisfied the proof of trade requirements detailed in this notice. The rights of a licence can only be transferred once, to the nominated transferee. Further transfers of rights are not permitted, other than to transfer the rights back to the original licence holder.

Animal and public health

To protect animal and public health, all products of animal origin may be subject to veterinary conditions or restrictions. You can call the Animal and Plant Health Agency Carlisle on 01228 403600 for advice on whether and under what conditions imports are allowed.

Authority

You can find details of the quantities available in Commission Regulation (EC) Nos 533/2007 and 536/2007 published in Official Journals L125 and L128 respectively and Commission Regulation (EC) Nos 1384/2007 and 1385/2007 published in Official Journal L309. You can get copies from Stationery Office bookshops and accredited agents, or ordered from the Stationery Office website www.tso.co.uk.

You can also access the Official Journals electronically by visiting the Commission's website <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/JOIndex.do?ihmlang=en>. We are not responsible for the accuracy or completeness of the Europa website. Whilst every care has been taken in producing this guidance, the regulations as published are definitive.
