Proceedings for contempt of court may be brought against a person who makes or causes to be made a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth.

6. Attending the court

Section N of the the booklet 'CB1 - Making an application - Children and the Family Courts' provides information about attending court.

If you require an interpreter, you must tell the court now so that one can be arranged.

Do you or any of the parties need an interpreter at court?

Yes No

If Yes, please specify the language and dialect:

If attending the court, do you or any of the parties involved have a disability for which you require special assistance or special facilities?

Yes No

If Yes, please say what the needs are

Please say whether the court needs to make any special arrangements for you to attend court (e.g. providing you with a separate waiting room from the respondent or other security provisions).

Court staff may get in touch with you about the requirements

What to do now

- Check you have attached a certified copy of your birth certificate.
- Check you have signed Section 10 of this form.
- You must provide a copy of the application and attached documents for each of the respondents.
- Details of the additional respondents if there are more than 2 in Section 7.
- Check you have attached the correct fee. The leaflet 'EX50 Civil and Family Court Fees' provides information about court fees you will have to pay.

Now take or send your application with the correct fee and correct number of copies to the court.

Guidance Notes for applicant on completing this form

- Please read all of these guidance notes before you begin completing the application. The notes follow the order in which information is required on the application.
- Court staff can help you fill in the application and give information about procedure once it has been issued, but they cannot give legal advice. If you need legal advice, for example, about the reason for making the application, the likely success of your application or the evidence you need to support it, you should contact a solicitor or Citizens Advice.
- If you are filling in the application by hand, please use black ink and write in block capitals.
- You must file any written evidence to support your application either in or with the application. Your written evidence must be verified by a statement of truth.
- Copy the completed application, the respondent's notes for guidance and your written evidence so that you have a copy for yourself, one copy for the court and one copy for each respondent. Send or take the applications and evidence to the court office with the appropriate fee. The court will tell you how much this is.

Applicant and Respondent details

As the person making the application, you are called the 'applicant'; any other party is called a 'respondent'. Applicants who are under 18 years old (unless otherwise permitted by the court) and persons who lack capacity within the meaning of the Mental Capacity Act 2005 must have a litigation friend to make the application

Court fees

You may be exempt from paying all or part of the fee. The combined booklet and application form 'EX160A Court Fees - Do you have to pay them' gives more information. You can get a copy from the court or download a copy from our website at www.hmcourts-service.gov.uk and conduct court proceedings on their behalf. Court staff will tell you more about what you need to do if this applies to you.

You must provide the following information about yourself and each respondent (if known):

- all known forenames and surname;
- whether Mr, Mrs, Miss, Ms or Other (e.g. Dr); and
- residential address (including postcode and telephone number), unless form C8 filed.

Where any person listed in the application form is:

- under 18, write ("a child, by 'Mr Joe Bloggs' his/her litigation friend")
- a person who lacks capacity within the meaning of the Mental Capacity Act 2005, write ("by Mr Joe Bloggs, his/her litigation friend")
- appearing in a representative capacity, you must say what that capacity is, eg. "Mr Joe Bloggs as the representative of Mrs Sharon Bloggs"

Your solicitor's name and address

If you are represented by solicitor in these proceedings, enter in this box your solicitor's full name and address, and other contact details as requested.

Details of application

Under this heading you must set out either:

- the question(s) you wish the court to decide; or
- the order you are seeking and the legal basis for your application; and
- if your application is being made under a specific rule or practice direction, you must state which.

Depending on the Declaration you are applying for you must set out specific information.

Statement of truth

This must be signed by you, by your solicitor or your litigation friend, as appropriate.
