

Victims' Code

All victims of crime in England and Wales have rights:

1

To be able to understand and to be understood

2

To have the details of the crime recorded without unjustified delay

3

To be provided with information when reporting the crime

4

To be referred to services that support victims and have services and support tailored to your needs

5

To be provided with information about compensation

6

To be provided with information about the investigation and prosecution

7

To make a Victim Personal Statement

8

To be given information about the trial, trial process and your role as a witness

9

To be given information about the outcome of the case and any appeals

10

To be paid expenses and have property returned

11

To be given information about the offender following a conviction

12

To make a complaint about your rights not being met
